Spotlight

Bill Dowd's

TIP OF THE MORNING: Errol Flynn's "The Story of William Tell," will be the first independent production filmed in Cinemascope. Work has started in the Italian Alps.

THIS IS A picture of Earl Chapin May, taken about 1894, when he was conductor and solo cornetist of the first "official" University of Wisconsin band. May will return to Madison this week as guest of honor at the band's reunion Thursday. He will conduct the organization in two numbers during a concert at 7 p. m. on the Memorial Union terrace.

The first university band was a military unit formed in 1885. May's band he received class credit and the leader got $500 a year in salary.

May now is a writer for national magazines. The present band will have a prominent place in commencement activities. It will play for the Honors Convocation at 4:30 p. m. Thursday, with Ruth Zerler, Plymouth, as vocal soloist. Alumni will sit in with the members in the terrace concert that night.

On Friday, the band will play for the commencement ceremonies, then will lead a march by graduating students from the fieldhouse to Lincoln terrace, via Monroe st., N. Randall ave., and N. Charter st., and past the carousel tower.

Four University of Wisconsin students will go to Colorado college at Colorado Springs this summer to study, under scholarships, with dancer Hanya Holm. They are Ivy Lee Cole, Corpus Christi, Tex.; Dolores Hammond, Berkeley, Calif.; Donald Redlich, Winona, Minn.; and A. A. Leathe, Richmond, Va. Seven other students are attending a 10-day institute at the University of Illinois. They are Elizabeth Crone, Summit, N. J.; Grace Cohen, Milwaukee; Rhoda Winter, Madison; Rona Sande, Ashley Falls, Mass.; Mary Reardon, Delafield; Joan Grant, Wauwatosa, and Joan Weinstein, New York City.

The Madison Vocational Concert of its season at 8 p. m. Thursday in Capitol park. Elmer Ziegler will conduct and David Sindrow, tuba, will play a solo.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

The bidding in today's hand was very easy.

South had a sound opening bid with 13 points in high cards and 2 points for the singleton. North had an excellent double raise with strong four-card trump support. 11 points in normal high-card strength, 1 point extra for the king of South's bid suit, and 2 points for the singleton.

The double raise showed strong trump support in a hand that counts from 13 to 17 points, and in this case North's total count was 14 points.

South was not really tempted to try for a slam. He had a minimum opening bid, and it was very unlikely that the combined count was even close to 33 points.

Hence South contented himself with bidding game, and North naturally had to accept this decision.

The play should have been every bit as simple as the bidding, but South found a way to be set. The hand is worth a second look because it is a type that you often encounter in actual play.

West opened the five of hearts, and dummy won with the ace. South immediately drew three rounds of trumps and then looked around for new worlds to conquer.

Unfortunately he had already conquered himself. There was now only one trump left in dummy, and South had three losing diamonds in his hand.

EDEN MAKES PROGRESS

BOSTON (UP) — British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden slept comfortably Saturday night and continues to make progress in his recovery from his third gall bladder operation, a bulletin issued by his doctors said Sunday. The 56-year-old diplomat was flown here last week for the operation, performed at New England Baptist Hospital by Drs. Frank Lahey and Richard Cattell of the Lahey Clinic.

It was obviously impossible to ruff his three diamonds with dummy's one trump, and South wound up losing three clubs and two diamonds.

An experienced and expert declarer would foresee as soon as the dummy appeared that he would have to ruff some losing diamonds in the dummy. Such a declarer would therefore carefully refrain from drawing trumps.

This can be stated as a general rule for the guidance of inexperienced bridge players:

Study the dummy to see whether you need to ruff your losing cards with dummy's trumps. If you need ruffs of this kind don't draw trumps; if you don't need ruffs of this kind, do draw trumps.

Following this rule, declarer should win the first trick in dummy with the ace of hearts, cash the ace of diamonds, and ruff a diamond in dummy. He returns to his hand by ruffing a heart in order to ruff a second diamond in dummy.

Then South gets to his own hand once more by ruffing a heart in order to ruff his last diamond in dummy.

Now South can cheerfully give up three club tricks but cannot lose the game contract.
