

Two Actions Aid Drought Victims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary Ezra T. Benson announced Tuesday that the Agriculture Department will buy "at least" 20,000,000 pounds of canned beef, gravy, hamburger, and boned beef to help drought-stricken cattlemen in the Southwest.

He said the purchases, to bolster the "ruinously low" prices cattlemen are getting for their live stock, will begin immediately and will continue for 20 weeks.

Earlier President Eisenhower made $8,000,000 available for use in the drought areas of west Texas and Oklahoma and also allocated $240,000 for flood-damaged areas of East Texas and Louisiana.

Benson said "the drought and general cattle situations are two separate problems, but they are now interrelated and will be so for some weeks at least."

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

When you make an overcall on a weak hand, you give the opponents a chance to collect a nice fat score. This is very pleasant for them if they happen to be far behind on the score. I might observe, however, that if you habitually make overcalls on weak hands you are seldom likely to be far ahead on the score.

The point is illustrated by a hand taken from a recent team match. All of the players were experts and therefore all of them should have known better. As we shall see, however, one of them didn't.

South's overall of one spade is a perfect example of a meaningless and nonsensical bid. The course of the bidding (a passing partner and two bidding opponents) makes it clear that the hand "belongs" to the enemy.

The overcall by South gives the opponents their choice between doubling and continuing their bidding.

NORTH		EAST
♠ 5	♠ J 5 2	♠ A Q 9 4	♠ A K 8 6 4
♥ A 5 4	♥ Q J 10 6 3	♥ K Q 10 8 8	♥ 3 2
♦ A K 4	♦ 8 5 2	♦ 9 7	♦ 8 7
SOUTH		WEST
♠ K J 10 7 3	♠ Q 10 3	♠ 9 8 7	♠ 6 5 4
♥ 10 9 8	♥ 7 6 5 4	♥ 3 2	♥ A K Q J
♦ 9 7	♦ 8 7	♦ 6 5 4	♦ 3 2
♣ 8 7	♣ 6 5 4	♣ 3 2	♣ A K Q J

Moreover, if they do decide to go on for a score of their own, they will have the benefit of knowing that South has a spade suit and a fair share of the missing high cards.

When the hand was actually played, West very properly decided to double. Everybody passed, and South had a chance to play the hand at the contract of his own choosing.

West opened the king of clubs, shifted to the king of diamonds, and then led his singleton heart when he was allowed to hold the diamond. East took the king of hearts and returned his remaining diamond, allowing West to force out the ace with the ten of diamonds.

In dummy for the first and only time, declarer led a trump and finessed the jack to West's queen. West cashed the ace of clubs and then led the queen of diamonds. East ruffed the queen of diamonds, took the ace of hearts, and led a third heart for West to ruff.

By this time South was down to four trumps. He hoped to win tricks with three of them, but even this consolation was denied him. West led another diamond, and East ruffed with the eight of spades. South had to overruff with the ten, after which West was sure to win two trump tricks with his ace and nine.

East and West chalked up 700 points for holding South to three tricks. It's perfectly true that East and West could have made a game, but that would have been worth considerably less than 700 points. To make the cheese more binding, at the other table the East-West pair failed to bid the game. Hence South's overall cost about 600 points!

Ike Gives Push to Bill Admitting Anti-Red Group

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — President Eisenhower won a partial victory Monday when the Senate Judiciary committee voted 8 to 4 to reconsider an administration bill to admit 240,000 anti-Communist refugees from behind the Iron Curtain.

Informed sources said the President intervened personally to get the bill out of a committee pigeon-hole. Mr. Eisenhower privately informed key Republican senators that he regards the measure as a vital weapon in the U. S. psychological warfare program.

The bill is designed to encourage anti-Communist groups in Russia's satellite countries.

Administration supporters got the committee to reverse its action of last week which postponed consideration indefinitely.

Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah), principal Senate sponsor, scheduled a new hearing today to permit any opponents to testify.

The committee's action was taken at a close two-hour session. Newsmen were told the meeting was stormy.

Six Republicans and two Democrats voted to reconsider the bill while one Republican and three Democrats voted against.

The bill would provide 240,000 special immigration visas, mostly for anti-Communist in Soviet-controlled East Germany. A new section would authorize 5,000 visas for Asiatic nationals, but only about 1,000 of these are expected to qualify.
