Sen. Maybank Blasts Intimidation of Clergy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Burrell R. Maybank lashed out Sunday at slanderous imputation of loyal, God-fearing Protestant clergymen and said it can "undermine public confidence in our strongest bulwark against Communist doctrines."

The South Carolina Democrat's statement was the latest blast in the controversy centered around Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's permanent investigating subcommittee. He was the second member of the Senate's powerful "old guard" Southern bloc to speak out against McCarthy in the dispute.

Maybank, whose remarks were made to a reporter and immediately placed our government for denouncing one-man rule regardless of political or religious affiliation.

The clash between McCarthy and Senate Democrats stemmed from a magazine article in which Dr. J. B. Matthews, chosen by McCarthy as the subcommittee's executive director, charged that thousands of Protestant clergymen are aiding the "Communist apparatus."

WTMJ-TV Makes Shift to Channel 4

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Television fans in Milwaukee and a large section of Wisconsin switched their sets from Channel 3 to Channel 4 Saturday night as WTMJ-TV put into use its increased transmitting power and tripled tower height.

Gov. Walter Kohler, speaking from the transmitter building, was the first person to be televised on the new channel. He congratulated the station on its latest developments in a program during which the switch-over was made.

The station lengthened its range to a radius of 85 to 90 miles by the new 1,035 foot tower and 100 kilowatt transmitting power.
