NBC Auditions Set for Next Saturday

Auditions for appearances on the Madison broadcast of "New Talent, U.S.A." over the NBC network will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 8, in Scanlan hall.

Three judges will select the talent which will compete on the nationwide contest.

Any individual or group in the Madison area may enter. Those who want to appear at the trials should send full information about their acts to Station WIBA, Radio Park, before midnight next Friday.

Ike Reported Ready to Veto Tax Repealer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Informed sources said Friday President Eisenhower will veto the bill repealing the 20 per cent tax on movie tickets.

An informant who asked not to be identified said Mr. Eisenhower has decided the government cannot afford to lose the $100,000,000 in revenue the tax brings in each year.

Both the House and Senate passed the bill by wide margins recently to help theater owners withstand the competition of television. Industry spokesmen said many small theaters will be forced to close unless relief is granted.

The administration, which is wrestling with an unbalanced federal budget, has resisted all efforts to cut taxes this year.

A veto presumably would kill the movie bill for this session since Congress is near adjournment. A two-thirds majority would be necessary to pass it over Mr. Eisenhower's veto.

6 Who Attempted to Enter Cardinal's Office Given Jail

CHICAGO (AP)—Six followers of an excommunicated Roman Catholic priest who were arrested when they tried to enter the office of Samuel Cardinal Stritch Thursday went to jail Friday rather than pay disorderly conduct fines.

The same men were escorted from the Notre Dame campus in South Bend, Ind., Tuesday after announcing they intended to convert Notre Dame students to their belief.

The men are followers of Leonard Feeney, a Boston Jesuit priest excommunicated for preaching, contrary to orders of the Pope, that salvation is impossible outside the Roman Catholic Church.

Hugh Melsaac, 30, who identified himself as leader of the group, said they came from Cambridge, Mass., to ask Cardinal Stritch if Feenery still is a priest.

Circuit Judge Mason S. Sullivan cut Melsaac short when the defendant pounded with his fist and shouted, "Before God, he (Stritch) has to answer us. He's a scandal to the Catholics of America."

"We are six slaves of the Immaculate Heart of Mary," Melsaac shouted. "We went as angry sons of our father (Stritch) to ask him if Fr. Feeney is still a priest and will be forever. If he is, his (Stritch's) duty is to correct the error of being called an expriest in the newspapers."

Judge Sullivan pounded his gavel and ordered a bailiff to place Melsaac in the lockup, saying he was out of order.

"I refuse to let my brothers talk or answer any more questions," Melsaac called out as he was led away.

When he was called back later Melsaac said the group would "go to Rome" over the issue.

Judge Sullivan fined each defendant $5 and costs but they refused to pay, saying it would imply they are guilty. They had $200 on their persons.

They were taken to the Bridewell for physical examinations before starting to work out their fines at a rate of $1.50 a day.

20 Drown as Bus Plunges into Canal

MORRISBURG, Ont. (U.P.) — Twenty passengers aboard an express bus were drowned Friday when it crashed into a parked truck and plunged into the Williamsburg Canal west of here.

Nineteen persons survived the crash. Provincial police dragged the canal in a search for possible other victims.

The bus, a Colonial Coach Lines Toronto-to-Montreal overnight express, hit the truck at about 4 a. m. while many of its passengers were asleep, survivors said. The collision threw both vehicles off the highway and down a 25-foot embankment into 20 feet of water.

Highways Minister George Doucett ordered an "immediate and searching" investigation of the collision. Bus company officials said their inspector said the truck had been stalled across the road without lights.

The bus settled slowly on one side, survivors said, and passengers on that side drowned before they could reach the windows. Others fought their way out through broken glass or through the door.
