Bill Doudna's SPOTLIGHT
 Names in the News

TIP O' THE MORNING: Today is the fifth birthday of Station WMBM, and you're invited to visit the studios at 2047 Winnebago St.

ROLES in "The Phantom Ape" have been assigned to Claude Dauphin, French stage and screen star, and Karl Malden, Broadway actor.

Gene Autry is due in New York City on Sept. 17 after a successful engagement at the Empress hall in London and a six-week tour of northern England, Scotland, and Wales. The Autry troupe played to capacity audiences for four weeks in London.

When Robert Neil completes work in "The French Line," he'll have his name changed to Scott Elliot. Reason: the actor is often confused with a millionaire Texan of the same name.

Comedian Joe E. Lewis, asked why he has no television show, explained: "I had one once, and they took a Nielsen rating and found out that 75 per cent of the studio audience wasn't watching me."

Zino Francescatti has been invited to be guest soloist at a Paganini-Columbus Day celebration in Genoa, Italy, on Oct. 12. He will play a Paganini concert, using the Guarnerius which Paganini willed to Genoa more than a century ago. Francescatti, a pupil of Sivori, Paganini's only direct pupil.

Victor Francen and Dennis King will open in "The Strong Arm Lonely" in Philadelphia on Sept. 17, then will move on Broadway for the New York premiere in the Broadway theater Sept. 20. Margaret Webster is staging Eva Loggiani's adaptation of the Hochwelder play.

Jean Casadesu, son of Robert and Gaby Casadesu, was married recently to Eve-Marie Girard in Venice, Italy.

Reed Hadley, star of "Racket Squad" on television, will have a leading role in the film "House in the Sea."

Charles Farrell has resigned as mayor of Palm Springs, Calif. Reason: pressure of radio and television work in Hollywood, 125 miles away.

Lazar Webster won first prize in the youth film division of the Venice Film Festival with "Heidi."

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edwards observed their 14th wedding anniversary Aug. 19.

Ben Grauer has gone to Italy to do a story about the new Italian State railways, super-titan operating between Milan, Rome, and Naples. He will also visit Austria and France.

AT KANSAS CITY: The forthcoming season of the Kansas City Philharmonic will be made up of 20 subscription concerts, four opera performances, seven pop concerts, and 20 children's concerts. Hans Schweiger, the conductor, plans to present "Madame Butterfly" and "La Traviata" twice each. He also is preparing a performance of Honnegger's "King David." Soloists engaged are Jesus Maria Samons, Rudolf Firkusny, Guiomar Novaes, Rudolf Serkin, and William Warfield.

FAVORITE MUSIC: More than 8,000 patrons of New York's Lewisohn Stadium summer concert series voted their musical favorites: thus, symphony, Beethoven's fifth; violin concerto, Tchaikovsky's; piano concerto, Beethoven's "Emperor," opera, "Car-
