Washington Wonders Over Warren's Future

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP)—Earl Warren's decision to retire as governor of California threw the 1954 gubernatorial election wide open Friday, and touched off Washington speculation that Warren is headed for a place on the Supreme Court bench.
 After Warren announced his plans to retire Thursday, a highly-placed administration source in Washington said he is "confident" the governor is assured of appointment by President Eisenhower to the next high court vacancy.
 Warren's statement left unanswered the question of whether the 62-year-old Republican will finish out his term which is not due to expire until January of 1955.

Buffalo County Phone Firm Gets Dial OK

The state Public Service Commission (PSC) Friday authorized the Mondovi Telephone Co., Buffalo County, to spend $111,797 to convert to dial service and make other improvements.
 The company serves about 1,100 customers in the city and area, and also does switching service for five rural phone companies.
 The PSC, in another order, set a hearing for 11 a. m. on Sept. 16 in Madison for the Viroqua Telephone Co., which converted to dial operation in July. The company held up the request until dial installation and operating costs were known.
