TIP O' THE MORNING. Here's radio's answer to television: More than 30 new shows will hit the networks in the next two or three weeks.

THE MADISON CIVIC Symphony orchestra moved into L its new home-the remodeled auditorium of Central high school—Tuesday night. It was the organization's first rehearsal in the room in which it will open the 1953-54 season of civic music Nov. 1.

About 60 of the 75 members, including several newcomers, were there to rehearse two of the first concert's works under the direction of Walter Heermann.
They were Beethoven's "Dedi-cation of the House" overture and Rachmaninoff's second sym-

The Packers' regular season will begin Sunday, with the broadcast scheduled at 1:25 p.m. WISC and WISC-FM began their high school coverage last week with the Edgewood-Wisconsin Dells game. Coming up are Central-Beloit, Central-East, with the state of the stage, now about eight feet deeper than before. Even with this alteration, the seating capacity is about 1,100.

Lighting has been improved.
