Churchill Expected to Make New Bid for Peace Talks

MARGATE, England (U.P.)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill arrived Friday in this seaside resort, where he is expected today to make a new, dramatic bid for negotiated settlement of the cold war.
 Churchill came to attend the windup sessions of his conservative party's annual convention. He will make his first major speech in four months at a meeting just after the convention adjourns.
 Although there has been no official announcement of the subject of his speech, everyone expects that he will repeat his call for a top-level Big Four meeting and perhaps advance some new proposal for a settlement of the bitter, world-wide conflict between East and West.
 American, British, and French officials in London were expected to wait for Churchill's speech before putting finishing touches on a joint reply to Russia's recent "double-talk" note on prospects for a meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers.
 Churchill's arrival was expected to mark the 22nd anniversary of the founding of the Chinese republic.

Suit Asks Action on Replacing Taft

COLUMBUS, O. (U.P.)—Atty. Paul M. Herbert, Ohio's former Republican lieutenant governor filed suit in the State Supreme Court here Friday to compel Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche to appoint a U.S. senator "forthwith" as required by law, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Sen. Robert A. Taft.
 Herbert filed the suit late as a taxpayer and citizen, pointing out that Sen. Taft died July 31.
 His suit, alleged that Lausche is denying the appointee opportunity to familiarize himself with the duties of the senators.
 The petition also alleged that the governor is derelict in the performance of his duties solely for political advantage which may inure to himself by reason of widespread publicity created by his failure and refusal to appoint a senator to fill the vacancy.
 Gov. Lausche could not be reached for comment immediately.
