NUISANCE VISITS

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (U.P.) — Joseph Karazewski has decided someone doesn't like him. In one night, he received unexpected visits from the police, the fire department, a physician and a taxi driver. Police said they had received an "unnecessary noise" complaint, but they found Karazewski and his wife at home, sound asleep.

'VENUS OBSERVED': Gerald Kahan, director of the reading of "Venus Observed" at Scanlan hall at 8 p.m. Sunday, is a teaching assistant at the University of Wisconsin who has directed about 36 plays.

Kahan is working on his doctorate. He received his bachelor's degree here in 1947 and his master's a year later.

Before returning to Madison, Kahan was director of the Sheboygan Community Players for four years, and directed the Linden Circle Players in the summer of 1950. He has also been technical director and assistant director of the Crater Players, directed "She Stoops to Conquer" for the Madison Repertory theater, and produced "Hamlet" and "The Hairy Ape" in the Play Circle.

"Venus Observed" will be presented by alumnae of Phi Beta, national speech and music fraternity. Tickets will be on sale at the door.
