Annual Christmas Projects

Boy Scouts of the Madison area today launched their annual Christmas projects with two major programs-the Yule tree lot on E. Washington ave, near the Gisholt Machine Co., and the sale of wreaths.

The tree lot was to be set up today by volunteer adult Scout leaders and will again be operated by members of the Four Lakes Drum and Bugle Corps and their fathers.

Proceeds go toward the operation of the championship musical

The wreath project is being carried out by most of the troops in the Four Lakes Council with the evergreen decorations stored near the Scouts' headquarters at 14 W. Johnson st. until delivery.

Don Bezucha, field executive with the Four Lakes council, said that the wreaths are sold by a Wankesha man who received permission to cut the evergreens near Morse. Wis., and has provided employment to several families in the area by preparing the wreaths for statewide distri-bution through Scout troops ex-
