Italy Frees 20,000 Prisoners for Yule

ROME (UP)—The Italian parliament Friday night approved an amnesty bill that will free more than half the inmates of jails in time for Christmas.
 The Chamber of Deputies voted by a show of hands to release some 20,000 prisoners. Special arrangements were made to cut red tape so the prisoners may join their families for Christmas.

Queen, Duke Leave Fiji for Tonga Island

SUVA, Fiji Islands, Saturday (UP)—Queen Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, left here by air tonight for Tonga and the friendly isles of Queen Salote.
 The Queen congratulated the various Fiji racial communities before leaving today for "living and working together in harmony."
 "It gives me great pleasure to learn of the way in which the different racial communities in Fiji have succeeded in living and working together in harmony," the Queen said. "This has given the colony prosperity and a political stability that might well be envied by many larger territories."

2 Madison Quartets to Sing Here Tonight

Two of Madison's most popular quartets, the Cardinals and the For-More, will be among the top attractions on the "Quartet Christmas Carol" at 8 tonight in West high school auditorium.
 Featuring will be the Schmitt brothers of Two Rivers. Three other quartets and the championship Madison chorus also will appear. Tickets will be on sale at the door.
 Breitenstein was placed on probation to his pastor, the Rev. John K. Clark, of the Hillsboro Methodist church, and was told by the judge that if he pays $50 restitution to the YMCA, his probation can be terminated earlier than one year.

PLACED ON PROBATION

Clair Breitenstein, 21, former manager of the snack bar in the Madison YMCA, who pleaded guilty Wednesday to stealing $50 from YMCA funds, was placed on one year's probation Friday by Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor.
 Breitenstein was placed on probation to his pastor, the Rev. John K. Clark, of the Hillsboro Methodist church, and was told by the judge that if he pays $50 restitution to the YMCA, his probation can be terminated earlier than one year.
