MADISON KNEW EMIL Heermann through his visits to his brother. Walter; through his concert appearances, and through his reaching at the University of Wisconsin's 11:35 summer music clinic. It never knew him so intimately, of course, as his fellow citizens of Cincinnati, where for 44 years he was a member of the Cincinnati Symphony or-

But our small acquaintance with him was enough to tell us that those things his home city remembered most, when he died less than two weeks ago, were true.

"He met his maker," Henry Humphreys wrote in the Good bidding and good play Times-Star, "with a heart full of the joy of living and creating beautiful music that made Cincinnatia finer city to live in hand, for example, was bid with for as many years as I have lived on the earth.

NEW YARK (M — Army and Air Force post exchanges will continue to sell coffee for five cents a cup no matter what happens to the price of coffee consumed by civilians, the chief of the Army and Air Force Exchange said Saturday.

Maj. Gen. Edward H. White said about 75 million cups of coffee are sold in exchange operated cafeterias and snack bars.

Sound doubt that for a moment.

"In the musical world, as in the other, there must be persons of supreme integrity who fill the less conspicuous roles but make a joint effort possible. These gifts and their great contribution of them are typified in the life and career of Emil Heermann."
