Dali Gives Painting Finishing Touches as 'Inspiration' Grows

NEW YORK 191 — As the ends of his mustache — which he describes as an "inspirational antenna" — edge slowly up to Salvador Dali's eyebrows, he is putting the finishing touches to his latest work of art, "Soft Watch Exploding into 888 Pieces."

This modern adaptation of the sense of the safe.

We will stimulate both the brain and the imagination."

Dali affirms he finds the appendage quite comfortable.

And there is no danger of his going up in a ball of flame — atomic or otherwise.

He doesn't smoke — so the antenna is safe.
