Bill Dowd's SPOTLIGHT

Names in the News

TIP O' THE MORNING: If you're smiling and someone hands you a prize, don't be surprised. Station WFMF is observing National Smile Week by giving awards to smiles on Madison streets.

NEWS commentator Pauline Frederick (NBC-WIBA) has been awarded an honorary colonel's commission in the Veterans of Foreign Wars post at Bristol, Tenn.
 Prof. Raymond F. Dvorak, director of bands at the University of Wisconsin, will go to Ellensburg, Wash., in July to be featured speaker at a five-day band clinic. The clinic will be sponsored by the Central Washington College of Education.
 Leopold Stokowski has signed a long-term renewal of his recording contract with RCA Victor.
 A fellowship honoring Dr. Frances Horwath—"Miss Frances" of NBC-TV's "Ding Dong School"—has been established at the Teachers College of Columbia university. A $2,000-a-year fellowship set up by the $2,000-a-year fellowship for study in early childhood education.
 Frances Hyland, Canadian actress who has been playing in England the last four years, will co-star with James Mason in "Measure for Measure" during the summer at the Stratford, Ont., Shakespearean festival.
 James Daly, of "Foreign Intrigue," TV film series, will star in a play to be produced in Paris. Daly is known here for his work with Wisconsin Players, Port Players, and Maurice Evans.
 Leland Hayward has been chosen producer of "The Spirit of St. Louis," Warner Brothers' film story of the Lindbergh flight to Paris. Billy Wilder will write and direct the show.

TODAY'S QUOTE: "A hat is something a lady wears on her head, a politician throws into the ring, and a diplomat talks through." —John S. Young of "Make Up Your Mind." (CBS-WBBM).

DISCS OF THE DAY: Some recommended "pop" records...
 *Percy Faith orchestra (Columbia): "The River," a tango featuring Mitch Miller on oboe and English horn, and "Edelma," Italian melody with a faster beat.
 *Johnnie Ray (Columbia): "You'd Be Surprised," a noisy version of the oldie, strictly for Ray fans, and "Why Should I Be Sorry," a torch ballad. Percy Faith's orchestra backs him.
 *Paul Weston orchestra (Columbia): "Indiscretion" and "Autumn in Rome," a pair of instrumentals.
 *Leon De Lyon (MGM): "The Band Played On" and "Say It Isn't So." This newcomer, with an obviously "planted" name, makes his voice sound like all the instruments and a few voices. After the novelty has worn off, however, these don't amount to much.
