Stunt Man Sets Record for Getting 'Killed'

(N. Y. Herald Tribune News Service)

HOLLYWOOD— Rube Schaffer, Hollywood stunt man who has "died" on the screen 275 times in the past 26 years, has established a new record — he was "killed" six times in six different roles in one day's shooting.

In filming Columbia's "Pirates of Tripoli," Mr. Schaffer was picked off by a sniper's bullet, knifed while scaling a palace wall, pushed off a roof, run through in a fencing match, blown to bits by cannons and drowned in a sea battle.

Costello Accuses Hollywood of 'Snobbery' Towards Comics

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lou Costello accuses the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences of practicing snobbery towards comics.

"There will be an Oscar for the guy who sets the chairs straight on the set and the guy who sails miniature sailboats on the studio pond to make it look like real pirates, but none for the comics who keep studios from going bankrupt," moans Lou.

COSTELLO

Reminded that Robert Strauss was nominated for comedy role in "Stalag 17," Costello replied:

"Strauss is a character actor who can play comedy roles. He is not an out and out comic. There's a difference.

"Jerry Lewis deserved a nomination for 'The Stooge' but Jerry is a comic, not an actor, so he was ignored. I propose that the academy make a special award this year to Martin and Lewis."

That proposal comes as a surprise to Hollywood since Abbott and Costello and Martin and Lewis were considered bitter enemies only a few months ago.

The feud stemmed from the fact that Costello once had Dean Martin under personal contract, even shelled out $900 to have Martin's nose bobbed by a plastic surgeon.

"When I first knew Martin," recalls Lou, "his face looked like a banana split without the ice cream."

Martin later teamed with Lewis to become a comedy sensation. Lou went out to Ciro's when they first opened there.

The feud lasted until a few months ago, when Lou's illness prevented his going on television Comedy Hour. Martin and Lewis stepped in to pinch hit. All was forgiven.

21 Schools to Send Pupils to Portage Music Festival

PORTAGE — Twenty-one schools will send pupils to the Portage district music festival Mar. 26 and May 8, John B. LeMay, chairman, said Wednesday.

Participating schools will be Baraboo, Cambria, Elroy, Fall River, Hillsboro, Lodi, Mauston, Mazomanie, New Lisbon, Portage, Poynette, Prairie du Sac, Reedsburg, Richland Center, Rio, Sauk City, Waunakee, Wisconsin Dells, Wonewoc, Madonna of Mauston, and Necedah.

A total of 1,161 events will be held in the solo and ensemble festival Mar. 26. Bands, choruses, and glee clubs will seek ratings May 8.

An afternoon parade and a massed band and chorus concert at night will be features of the second event.

Festival headquarters will be in the Portage High school.

Hollywod to Film 'The King and I'

(N. Y. Herald Tribune News Service)

HOLLYWOOD— "The King and I," hit musical, which is closing on Broadway this month after a run of 156 weeks, will be filmed this summer, in CinemaScope by Fox, with a $4,000,000 budget.

The studio, which has owned rights to the screen property for seven years, announced they had also acquired rights to the lyrics and music by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II, who will write additional songs and collaborate with Charles Brackett on the production.

In 1946 Fox acquired rights to the book, "Anna and the King of Siam," by Margaret Landon and made a film based on part of it. The Broadway musical is also based on the book about the adventures of British governess Anna Lowens and the king of Siam.

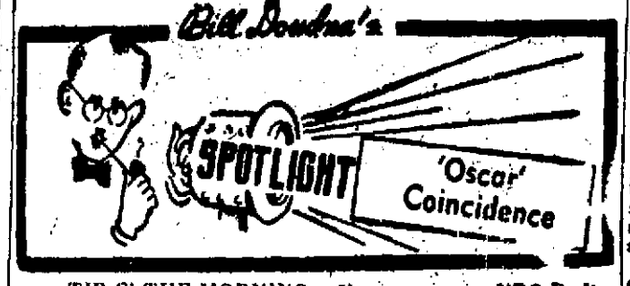
Bill Doubra's SPOTLIGHT 'Oscar' Coincidence



TIP O' THE MORNING: You can expect NBC Radio to build up a two-hour Sunday night show with Dave Garroway as the central figure.

* * *

AN ACADEMY AWARD sidelight of 1953 is repeating itself in one aspect of the "Oscar" ceremonies of the motion picture industry Thursday, March 25.

Two of the actresses nominated last year for best performance by an actress—Bette Davis and Shirley Booth—were starring in Broadway hits and had to be rushed to the NBC studio right from the stages of the theaters where they were playing.

This year two candidates—Audrey Hepburn ("Ondine") and Deborah Kerr ("Tea and Sympathy")—are starring in Broadway hits, and will also be on hand for possible awards.

PAXTON ON THE ROAD: Prof. J. Russell Paxton of the University of Wisconsin music school will go to Indianapolis to be guest director of the Marion County Choral festival Tuesday, March 23. He will conduct a chorus of 600 voices chosen from the choral groups of 14 large high schools in and around Indianapolis. Before coming to Wisconsin, Paxton was associated almost 25 years with the music department of Arsenal Technical high school, Indianapolis.

He will go to Elkhart, Ind., on Friday, April 2, to be guest director at the Four City Music festival. On April 9, he will be in Appleton to speak and demonstrate techniques with a group from the northeastern section of the Wisconsin Education assn.

Paxton will be guest director at the Fond du Lac Festival of Church Choirs on Palm Sunday; guest director for the Illinois Northwest Conference Music festival in Zurich on April 25, and conductor of the combined chorus at the La Crosse junior high school festival on May 11. Conductor Walter Heermann of the Madison Civic Symphony orchestra will conduct the combined orchestra at the La Crosse festival.

At 4:15 p. m. this Sunday, Paxton will be one of the conductors at the Sunday Music Hour in the Wisconsin Union theater. He also conducted Tuesday night at the university's Krenek festival.

MUSIC EXCHANGE: The choir of Central senior high school will go to Baraboo next month to repay a visit from the Baraboo high school choir.

The 60-voice Baraboo chorus, directed by Jane Haslanger, sang March 12 at Central. Central's 90 singers and their leader, Darleen McCormick, will give a program Wednesday, April 7, in Baraboo high school.
