$300 in Stolen Tools Found in Iowa County

DARLINGTON — Some $300 worth of tools stolen recently from the Yellowstone Dam conservation project here were recovered Friday, Lafayette County Sheriff Lawrence James reported.

James and Iowa County Sheriff Ray Reese recovered the stolen tools in Iowa county. Also found were $100 worth of tools stolen last year from a rock crusher owned by Homer Glendenning of Darlington.

Both sheriffs were questioning suspects.

Ex-POWs Tell Suspicions of Dickenson

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—A former prisoner of war said Friday he was beaten and placed in front of a mock firing squad three times after discussing escape plans with Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson.

Edward M. Gaither of Philadelphia, said he had no proof that Dickenson tipped off the Communists. But he said a Red guard uncovered his escape equipment under a loose floorboard less than two days after he showed it to Dickenson.

He also said another guard told him he coud get out of prison if he adopted Dickenson's attitude.

Gaither was among several ex-prisoners who testified during the fifth day of Dickenson's court-martial. The Cracker's Neck, Va., mountaineer is accused of squealing on his prison camp buddies in order to curry favor for himself.

Glaring directly at Dickenson, Gaither openly admitted his hostility toward him. At one point, he snapped at Dickenson sitting across the room, "Don't you like it?"

Gaither testified after two other ex-prisoners told the court of a futile attempt they and Dickenson made to escape.

One of them, Fred Obroff of Wheelright, Ky., said Dickenson later admitted furnishing some details of the escape to their Communist captors. He quoted Dickenson as saying "they put a gun to my head."

Another ex-prisoner, Sgt. John Spivey of Washington, D. C., identified the voice in a recorded Communist propaganda broadcast as that of Dickenson.

Bill Deedee's Spotlight

TIP O' THE MORNING: The Wednesday night fights will continue all summer on CBS television.

VICTOR PERRIN, whose performances with Wisconsin Players in 1939 and 1940 are still remembered by Madison playgoers, will be heard on radio today and Monday.

Perrin will be featured in "The Lady and the Dog," a Red Cross drama, over WIBA at 11:15 a .m. today.

He will have a leading role in the CBS-WBBM "Suspense" drama at 8 p. m. Monday, playing in support of Charles Boyer. In "The Bertillon Method," Boyer will play the famed French detective and Perrin will portray his assistant, Girard.

The 38-year-old actor graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1940 after making Players history as the priest in "Father Malachy's Miracle" and the stage manager in "Our Town." He also did radio work here.

PERRIN

Perrin was born in Menomonee Falls and graduated from high school there in 1933. He spent 18 months in a Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) camp, then entered Wisconsin, working his way through school as a radio announcer, actor, and producer.

In 1939, he visited Hollywood and there met a childhood friend, Jan Neu Stuart. After Vic received his degree, they were married. They have one son, George Michael, 11.

Perrin has appeared in many films as well as on most of Hollywood's big-time radio television shows. His latest movie is Paramount's "Forever Female."

Perrin says that his favorite roles are "psychologically interesting villians," but that for the future he wants "a continuing succession of interesting and challenging character roles in radio, television, and motion pictures."

NAMES IN THE NEWS: Phyllis Juster, 730 Miami Pass, a student at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., gave a recital of folk songs Wednesday night in Jordan hall, Boston.

Joy Bishop, 1640 Monroe st., and Helen Vickerman, Lima, will give a senior recital at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Milton college auditorium, Milton. Miss Bishop is a violin pupil of Marie Endres and Miss Vickerman is a voice student of Prof. Bernhardt Westlund.

Robert Montgomery, television producer and narrator, has been appointed national co-chairman of the 1954 multiple Sclerosis campaign.

Ed "Toast of the Town" Sullivan will be grand marshal of the parade at the 27th annual Shenandoah Apple Blossom festival in Winchester, Va., on April 30.

Comedian George Gobel will return to New York on May 1 after an engagement at the Sahara, Las Vegas, Nev. He will appear for four weeks, beginning May 6, at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, then will appear in Denver, Reno, and Chicago. In the Fall, he will have his own NBC-TV show.

Collectors Please Note This Unusual Egg

BONHAM, Tex. (UP) — A hen at the Tim Fogle farm near Ivanhoe laid an egg within an egg.

The outer egg, which had a white and a yolk, was accidentally broken by Mrs. Fogle's granddaughter, Rozelle Baker. Inside was another egg of normal size.

The outer egg measured 9¾ by 8¼ inches.

Hudson and Nash Boards OK Merger

DETROIT (U.P.) — Consolidation of Hudson Motors and Nash-Kelvinator Corp. into a new firm to be known as the American Motor Corp.—fourth largest auto company in the world—was approved Thursday by the Hudson and Nash boards of directors.

Stockholders of both firms recently voted in favor of the merger, a $355,000,000 deal that will be formally completed Apr. 30, when the agreement is filed with state authorities in Michigan and Maryland.

Nash President George W. Mason, who will be American Motors' first chairman and president, described the consolidation as a "bold approach to the changing needs of the American motorist."

It was also known to be an approach to changing needs of the American auto maker. Smaller auto firms have faced difficulty competing with the auto industry's "big three." American Motors will rank in fourth spot behind General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler.

Hudson stock will be exchanged at the rate of three shares for two shares in American Motors, while Nash shares will be traded on an even one-for-one basis.
