RED CHINA SAYS IT WILL FREE SIX DETAINED YANKS

GENEVA, July 21—(AP) Red China has promised to free six detained Americans, including four Roman Catholic priests, the U.S. State Department announced today.

Of the civilians, 30 are in Chinese jails, three are under house arrest and 11 have not received exit permits. The Chinese admit they are holding the 15 officers and enlisted men, but they also may have others.

The six Americans Peiping has agreed to release are: The Rev. John Baptist Mave, a Passionist order missionary, from Scranton, Pa. He went to China in May, 1945, to set up a mission in Hunan province.
