

STENO of the MONTH

Rose Marie Snelgrove
Stenographer,
Case Products Corp.

"Although I haven't quite completed my Speedwriting shorthand course at Butler's, I'm taking dictation and transcription every day at Case. My boss tells me my work is very satisfactory. I can hardly believe I've gotten such good results in such a short time. . . attending school only two nights a week. I don't hesitate to recommend Speedwriting shorthand every where I go."

THREE HARDY MEN

NEW YORK—(AP) Ty Cobb, who played 24 years in major league baseball from 1905 to 1928, established countless records in the 3,093 games in which he participated. Cobb, Tris Speaker and Honus Wagner are the only men who played 100 or more games in 19 seasons in the majors. Wagner and Speaker did have this triumph over Cobb: They played their 100-game years consecutively. Cobb split up the years in which he equalled their records.
