Here's the Dior Silhouette

The new look... Here are the first pictures of Christian Dior's controversial silhouette for fall, in which the bosom is 'flattened' and lifted. At left is an ensemble in black nylon and rayon velvet...

Albert D. Fay honored in the express business as a driver for the Adams Express company Aug. 19, 1904.

Albert D. Fay, of 508 Noble avenue, Railway Express general clerk here, received an engraved wrist watch in recognition of his 50 years continuous service in the express business at a luncheon yesterday in the Stratford hotel.

Born in Pomfret, Mr. Fay started in the express business as a driver for the Adams Express company Aug. 19, 1904.

He recalls many changes in the local scene during his career and has seen the express business switch from the horse and wagon to motor vehicles and airplanes.

Mr. Fay is a member of the Bridgeport Traffic association.
