Speaking of publicity oddities, NBC-TV came up with a new one in publicizing its Saturday Night Revue in major cities al over the country. The gimmick was to send station wagons to main intersections. Up on top was a shapely beauty taking a bath. The motto was: "Take your Saturday night bath early so rou can watch the Saturday Night Revue." As one publicity

Rudolph Halley, who has served as legal counsel to Senate committees behind closed doors and in the spotlight of television and radio coverage, will debate the question. "Is Radio-TV Exclusion from Government Hearings Justified?" on America's Town Meeting of the Air over WNAB and WABC on Tuesday night from 9 to 9:45 o'clock. Halley, who gained national prominence as chief counsel for the Kesauver Crime committee, will discuss the provocative topic with Ralph W. Hardy, vice-president of the National Association of Radio and TV Broadcasters.

Hardy will uphold the Radio-TV 0industry's stand against the decision handed down by the special Senate committee studying the Mc-Carthy case to bar radio and television coverage.

As a veteran legal expert who has worked in the all-searching atmosphere of television and radio coverage during the Kefauver hearings, Hauey is expected to compare the Kefauver assignment to his previous post of counsel to the Truman committee which did not permit radio and television to air testimony.

sel to the two Senate committees. Halley, now in private law practice in New York City, served a term as president of the New York City Council.

The broadcast will originate from WABC's New York City studios and will be moderated by James F. Murray, Jr.

Opera Excerpts

Three excerpts from the Amsterdam performance of Alban Berg's opera "Wezzeck," by Eleanor Steber, the American seprane, will open the first of two pregrams from the 1954 Holland Festival en CBS radio's "World Music Festivals" this afternoon at 1:05 e'cleck. Miss Steber sings with Amsterdam's great Concertgebouw orchestra, conducted by Eugene Ormandy.

One of the notable visiting groups participating in the Holland Festival is the famous Scale Opera of Milan, which will be heard in an excerpt from Rossini's opera, "La Cenerentola." James Fassett, the program's producer, has recorded the final scene of the opera as conducted by Carle Marie Guilini, with a cast

'FAUSTUS' IS SUBJECT ON CATHOLIC HOUR

A dramatic reading of Christopher Marlowe's "Dr. Faustus" will be the "Catholic Hour" presentation on NBC-TV today (1:30 p.m.).

Perhaps no story in Christian literature has been treated in so many art forms as the German legend of Faustus, who sold his soul to the Devil in return for 24 years of further life with every pleasure and all knowledge at his command. At the close of the period, the Devil claims him as his own Marlowe's play, which dates from about 1589, follows the legend and brings out the central theme of man's pride of knowledge turning him from God

In the cast of the "Catholic Hour" production will be Anthony Messuri as Faustus, James Millhollin as Mephistopheles, and Frank Blair as narrator.
