KREMLIN STEPS UP DRIVE ON RELIGION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 - (AP). The U.S. Information Agency to new books and pamphlets aimed (USIA) said today the Kremin is against religion. It also said workstepping up a new propaganda came ers and children are prime targets pargue to drive all forms of religion in the Kremlin's anti-religious out of the Soviet Union.

The agency's press service said the communist regime is using books, pamphlets, lectures and broadcasts to heap scorn upon religious faith-whether it be Catholic, Profestant, Jewish, I-lamic or any other belief.

The campaign according to USIA was touched off July 24 by an editorial in Pravda official commun ist organ. The USIA dispatch, wirelessed to its overseas posts, ented an Aug. 18 statement from the Vatican. The Vatican statement described "a new anti-religious campaign, the most intense and best organized

Since that of 1930." "The old Marxist theory that re
