The largest television hookup in history has been arranged for the electrical industry's Diamond Jubilee event on Oct. 24th. Veteran Hollywood producer David O. Selznick has a $1,000,000.00 budget for the two hour extravaganza. About 310 TV stations, affiliated with all four major TV networks, will carry the star-studded program.

Max Liebman, former producer of "Your Show of Shows," has signed Ann Sothern to play the lead in "Lady in the Dark," one of the big musicals he is producing for NBC-TV this Fall. Ginger Rogers played the role on Broadway and had been mentioned for the video part.

TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

Eddie Fisher, one of the nation's top vocalists, will headline the Bill Silbert program over WMGM radio from Palisades Amusement park on Monday night, from 8 to 9:30 o'clock. This will mark Fisher's first outdoor public appearance since his recent return from Europe and it is expected that a record crowd of teenage group admirers will jam the amusement park in a welcome home party and watch the gifted popular singer in front of the WMGM microphones.

Also in the Silbert program will be the Four Lads, undoubtedly the most colorful vocal group to hit show business in many years. The Lads, Bernie Toorish, Jimmy Arnold, Connie Codarini and Frankie Busseri, rode to the top of the popular music heap on the Johnny Ray bandwagon a little more than a year ago. The Four Lads, whose latest recording "Skokiaan" is among the top best sellers of the day, have made personal appearances at some of the top night clubs and theaters across the country and have guested on many television shows, including "Broadway Open House," "Perry Como" and "The Show Goes On."

Tommy Prisco, who hails from Brooklyn and is a recording artist, and Betty Cox, CBS star, will also sing on the program. Joel Herron, of Westport, and his WMGM orchestra will provide the musical accompaniment.

Fight on Radio

Exclusive blow-by-blow coverage of the Rocky Marciano-Ezzard Charles return heavyweight championship bout will be aired over CBS radio on Wednesday, Sept. 15, beginning at 10:30 p. m. The fight will be blacked out on home television.

The ringside description of this 15-round fistic encounter from the Yankee Stadium, will be handled by Russ Hodges giving the blow-by-blow account, and Jack Drees handling between rounds commentary.

'Carmen' on Air

Bizet's "Carmen" will be the "Festival of Opera" presentation on WOR radio this afternoon from 1:30 to 4 o'clock. The particular recording of the full-length opera is performed in traditional French fashion by the Theater National de L'Opera-Comique of Paris.

Founded in the early 18th century to present operas which combined spoken dialogue with music, L'Opera-Comique is one of the world's leading lyric theaters, with an outstanding roster of singers.

Members of this company heard on the "Carmen" broadcast are Solange Michel in the role of Carmen, Marthe Angelici as Micaela, Raoul Jobin as Don Jose, and Michel Dens as Escamillo. Accompanying cast, chorus and orchestra are under the direction of Andre Cluytens.

Studio at Fair

For the eighth consecutive year, station WTIC, of Hartford, will operate a broadcasting studio at the Eastern States Exposition, Sept. 18 to 26, located in the balcony of the Connecticut building on Avenue of States. The studio will be open to visitors during the nine days of the Exposition, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., on weekdays and from 1 to 9 p. m., on Sundays. Regular and special WTIC broadcasts will originate on the premises daily.

In addition to a complete radio remote control unit, there will be an exhibition of the television equipment which has been used by WTIC for training of technical and program personnel. The TV equipment consists of a complete two camera chain.

One of the cameras will be installed in the center of the Connecticut building balcony and the other in the studio lobby. There will be closed circuit demonstrations, showing how studio and outside programs are telecast, and visitors will be given an opportunity to see "how they look on television."

Back on Air

"Meet Corliss Archer," the comedy about teenagers and their inevitable problems, starts its 12th year on the air when it returns to CBS radio at 8 o'clock Monday night.

This durable and popular situation comedy which presents family life in its funnier aspects, has been a radio fixture since 1942 with virtually the same cast.

Janet Waldo, who stars as the teenager whose capers keep the Archer household in an uproar, has played the Corliss role since the first broadcast. Sam Edwards, who is heard as Corliss' sweetheart, Dexter, has been on the program since 1946.

Other regulars are Fred Shields who portrays Corliss' exasperated, frustrated father; Irene Tedrow, the understanding albeit, bewildered mother, and Ken Christy as Mr. Franklin, Dexter's father.

The "Meet Corliss Archer" series was originally based on F. Hugh Herbert's magazine stories and his Broadway hit, "Kiss and Tell."

Barbara Gibson Sings

Barbara Gibson, coloratura soprano, will sing the lilting aria "Je Suis Titania" from Thomas' "Mignon" on the "Telephone Hour" broadcast Monday night over NBC radio from 9 to 9:30 o'clock. Her other solos will be "The Lass with the Delicate Air" by Arne, "Chanson de Marie Antoinette" by Jacobson and "Vola Farfaletta" by Sandoval.

Donald Voorhees will conduct the symphonic orchestra in the "Carousel" waltz by Rodgers, the music from "The Maid of Pskov" by Rimsky-Korsakov and Edward Elgar's "Salut d'Amour."

Steele on Radio

Ted Steele, veteran radio-television personality, is the first new addition to WOR radio's Fall program line-up, bowing in on the past-noon bloc with a half-hour weekday informal "talk" show Monday, Sept. 13, at 1:30 to 2 o'clock.

Telecast TOPICS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

That strange parade confronting the world today—magnificent hope and utter disaster lying hidden in the heart of the same atom—will be explored searchingly in the first television program to tell the over-all story of nuclear energy. NBC-TV will present the program, titled "Three, Two, One—Zero," Monday, Sept. 13, from 8 to 9 p. m. The title comes from the rthymic counting of the seconds that precedes each test blast of a nuclear device.

The program will be produced with the technical assistance of the Atomic Energy Commission and high officials of the government. It is being readied by the NBC-TV documentary unit responsible for the network's much-acclaimed "Victory at Sea" series.

Henry Salomon, Jr., who produced "Victory at Sea," will produce the nuclear energy telecast and, with Richard Hanser, wrote the script. Robert R. Bennett will compose an original orchestral score, and Alexander Scourby will be the narrator.

The program will be entirely on film. It will utilize the most telling and powerful of the film footage available in this country as well as from Russia, Japan and elsewhere. It will include the "best" of 52 different nuclear explosions available on film.

As outlined by Salomon, the program will show how life for the ordinary American citizen has been affected by the "situation of hovering menace." It will picture Russia as "the other half of a split world which is now capable of destroying itself," and will attempt to convey something of that nation's scientific and industrial prowess today. (It will underscore the fact that the Russians are especially advanced in exactly those fields where Party propaganda and politics seldom interfere—mathematics and physics, the fields that count in nuclear energy.) It also will examine the case of the intellectual traitor (like Klaus Fuchs) who looms so large in the history of these items, and will show how "security" has become a dominating word in our national life.

There will be material, too, on the so-called "international atom," illustrating the fact that other countries besides the United States, and independent of the U.S., are conducting nuclear energy programs aimed at the peaceful use of the atom.

New Comedy Show

Morey Amsterdam, who debuts in a new "Morey Amsterdam Show" on WABC-TV (Channel 7) on Monday, as a five day a week feature from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., is the ad-lib whirling dirvish of show business. He has played as many as 78 dates in one week in nighteries, theaters, Carnegie Hall, and on the air. After that he took his first vacation in 23 years.

Little League

High spots in the final game of the junior baseball championship of the world will be presented to CBS television viewers this afternoon from 1 to 1:30 o'clock.

The program will be a recorded telecast of the decisive game of the Little League World Series at Williamsport, Penna.

Mel Allen will narrate the special program which will include—in addition to a fairly complete presentation of the telling plays in the final game—some of the color of Little League Week in Williamsport, where the idea of Little League competition originated. The cameras will show how the youngsters live and are chaperoned far from home, and will include shots of the series finalist in the first and semi-final rounds.

Another Serial

An hour-and-a-half of Monday through Friday daytime serials will be presented on NBC-TV when a new daily drama is added to the present schedule and two current favorites are moved to new time spots, starting Monday.

The new program is "The Greatest Gift," story of a woman doctor who inherits a run-down practice and finds her progress complicated by a human problem over which she has no control. It will be presented in the 3 to 3:15 p.m., time period in place of "One Man's Family," which will move to the 3:30 to 3:45 p.m., segment. "First Love," currently on at 3:30 p.m., will move to the 4:15 to 4:30 p.m., period, formerly occupied by "Bride and Groom." The latter program will no longer be seen on Channel 4. And in conjunction with the change-over, "First Love," previously produced in Philadelphia, will now originate in New York City.

Permanent Host

Gordon MacRae, one of the nation's top singing stars, has been signed as permanent singing host on the "Comedy Hour" and will start his new role Sunday, Sept. 26 (NBC-TV, 8 p.m.).

Although MacRae has made several television guest appearances, this will mark his debut on a regular video series. He has been a long-time favorite on records and on NBC radio's "The Railroad Hour." He is now completing the lead role in the motion picture version of the musical, "Oklahoma!".

When the "Comedy Hour" starts its Fall season on Sunday, Sept. 19, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis will
