

AVA HAS 'NERVE CRISIS' AFTER JOSTLING IN RIO

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Actress Ava Gardner suffered a "nervous crisis" today, her press agent said, after she was met at the airport here by 700 fans and newsmen.

The management of the Gloria hotel, where the Gardner party checked in, said the crisis was featured by shouting, vase-throwing and furniture-breaking. She was asked to change hotels. Actual damage to the room was insignificant, management spokesmen said.

David Hanna, the press agent, said the crisis was caused by rough handling of the star received when the airport crowd swarmed around the plane and jostled Miss Gardner and her party. She is making a tour of South America.
