TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

The Oklahoma Symphony orchestra and the Kansas City Philharmonic have been added to the list of orchestra's in NBC Radio's symphonic series for the season of 1954-55. The series, which will present the Boston Symphony orchestra in 24 concerts, also will feature the Chicago Symphony in four broadcasts. All the 30 symphony programs will be presented on Saturday nights (8:30 to 9:30 o'clock).

The Oklahoma Symphony will be heard on Saturday, Jan. 15, 1955, 12. under the direction of Hans 1938. It has continuously expanded its schedule year after year. Today, become a leading symphony orcheschestra has become one of the nation's top cultural organizations. also on tour. Schwieger and tours achieved wide fame as guest con-

Making comic strips into teleision series seems to be popular these days. A long-running comic strip, Mandrake the Magician, is the latest to be adapted. The series is being made in Bermuda, starring an actor and professional magician, Coe Norton, as Mandrake. An ex-All American football player named Woody Strode is cast as the powerful follower, Prince Lothar.

Merle Oberon Stars

Merle Oberon will re-create the role she originated in the motion picture version of the classic "Wuthering Heights," when Radio Theater presents a full hour adaptation for its 1954-55 season premiere Tuesday night from 9 to 10 o'clock over NBC radio.

Cameron Mitchell will have the co-starring role opposite Miss Oberon, with whom he recently completed the forthcoming movie, "Desiree." Miss Oberon will be Kathie, and Mitchell will be Heathcliff, in the turbulent story of two strong-willed persons whose love destroys them both.

Tex and Jinx McCrarv's week-"New York Closeup" program will be heard beginning Monday on s new time period, from 1 to 2 p m., from a new location, the Walderf-Astoria hotel, with new special Added features in the show will include Tex's opening the program from the NBC newsroom, giving minutes of the latest with the show then switching to Jinx at the Waldorf and Tex rushing across town to join her there.

Among the quests on Monday's show will be Mrs. Victor Szturma of Ann street. Fairfield, an ardent fan of Tex and Jinx. She has missed listening to their program less than 20 times in the last eight

Starts 18th Year

"The Shadow," probably radio's best-known sleuth, will mark the end of his 17th year on WOR radio today.

Starred in the dual role, as he has been since 1943, is Bret Morrison, who succeeded such actors as Orson Welles and John Carradine. In top feminine rol is Gertrude Warner.
On the anniversary program

(WOR and WICC at 5 p.m.) the Shadow will investigate a farewell bachelor dinner which ended in a nightmare of murder. It is "No Corpse for the Killer."

WOMEN'S SERIES TO BOW MONDAY

"Byline," a new half-hour weekday series designed for the women-at-home audience and starring Sydney Smith as the reporter, will premiere over WNBC radio Monday, (9:35-10 a. m.).

Sydney, who has a long list of successful credit in radio and TV for woman's service shows, will bring to her audience the latest news in fields of interest to the distaff side such as fashion, grooming, home decoration, home planning, child care and cooking. Each day a top authority from one of these fields will be Sydney's guest, with discussion not only concerned with what is being done in the expensive brackets, but how the newest and best can be adapted to fit the budget and requirements of the average housewife.

Book, movie, and theater reviews will be given with the emphasis on the enjoyment of the entire family. Last minure news items, slanted for the homemaker; human interest anecdotes in the news; and a feature of New York, relating places to go and things to see for the whole family, will also be included in Miss Smith's new program.

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

Janet Waldo had better luck han Ponce de Leon discovering the fountain of youth. She is in her 13th year as the teenaged heroine of CBS adio's "Meet Corliss Archer" Miss Waldo not only has discovered the fountain of youth where de Leon failed, but she's made it pay better than most mineral waters.
