TV NEWSREEL

By "JOE" LEDERER

Among Walt Disney's upcoming TV shows will be some stories of the pioneer patriot Davey Crockett. Fess Parker a comparatively unknown actor, landed the title role in the stories. His physical characteristics won him the part.

G-E Automatic Electric Ranges give you outstanding advantages for luxury cooking. Roast the biggest turkey or bake 4 pies on a single shelf. Serve the finest "charcoal" steaks. Cook the easy push-button way.

Rocky Marciano, who will be seen quite often on the Martha Raye shows this teleseason (which will be viewed on Tuesday nights alternating with Milton Berle and Bob Hope), says he decided on an acting career after discovering Marlon Brando spending a good deal of time watching the Rock work out. "He was copying me," complains Rocky, "so I figured the real thing might get by the same way."

For the finest picture in this area choose dependable G-E Television. We're offering huge trade-in prices now . . . so don't wait. Turn in your old set and turn on a new G-E.

Bob Hope, incidentally, is set to do six shows during this season in Uncle Miltie's time spot. The first one won't be on our screens till November . . . Another comic, George Gobel, starts his new series on NBC October 2nd. Gobel was "discovered" on the 1953 Saturday Night Revue, and he's now finishing a last tour of the night clubs to sharpen his material.

Comic Fred Clark, who once played the next door neighbor in the Burns & Allen shows, reports he has instructions to gain ten pounds before the first new "spectacular" show for Chrysler on TV. Mario Lanza has been ordered to lose 100 pounds for the same show! You'll stand to gain in a spectacular way when you tune in on a big screen G-E TV set from our selection.

TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

On-the-spot recordings—the first ever made—of an actual Alcoholics Anonymous meeting will be heard for the first time on radio when "The Hidden Disease," an hour documentary revealing the problem of alcoholism and modern-day hopes and therapies for its control, is presented over WABC radio on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

A case history of an actual, but anonymous, alcoholic who found help in AA, statements from authorities in the field, and a narration of the history, development, therapies and activities of the AA will also be broadcast in this special one-shot show.

According to the Yale School for Alcoholic Studies, there are four million alcoholic sufferers in the United States. The disease each year costs the country $1,000,000,000 of national income, thousands of accidents and deaths, and untold suffering by the persons afflicted and the families concerned.

Holy Days Programs

Music associated with Jewish New Year observance and a talk by Rabbi William L. Rosenblum of Temple Israel in New York city will be heard over WQXR during a special Rosh Hashanah program tomorrow, from 6:05 to 6:30 p.m., as the Jewish New Year begins at sundown.

The program, presented in cooperation with the New York Federation of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, will be nonsectarian with its emphasis on acquainting listeners with the meaning of Rosh Hashanah.

In conducting the program Rabbi Rosenblum will read from the Union Prayer Book and will introduce and explain the musical selections to be heard. The topic of Rabbi Rosenblum's address will be "The Year 301," dealing with the tercentenary of Jewish settlement in America.

A Yom Kippur program in observance of the Day of Atonement will be broadcast over WQXR on Tuesday, Oct. 5, from 6:05 to 6.30 p.m. The service will be conducted by Rabbi Edward E. Klein of the Stephen Wise Free Synagogue, in New York city.

Crosby Tribute

The "Bing Crosby 20th Anniversary Tribute," a special hour and a half NBC radio feature, will be heard tonight starting at 6:30 o'clock. The program will highlight Crosby's career over the two decades as "the singer who has been heard more often by more people than any other" is saluted by an array of show business names.

Emcee of the event will be Gary Crosby, Bing's oldest son, and guests include Paul Whiteman, Barry Fitzgerald, Bob Hope, Mary Martin, Patti Andrews, Les Paul, Ethel Merman, Judy Garland, Irving Berlin and Johnny Mercer.

Benny to Return

Jack Benny will begin the 23rd consecutive year of his half-hour, Sunday nights at 7 o'clock tonight over CBS radio.

His record in radio remains unmatched for continuous tenure. Only "Amos 'n' Andy," whose continuous 27-year period in radio was interrupted by a seven-month absence while they changed from 15-minute-a-day broadcasts to once-a-week format, are favorites of longer standing.

And "Amos 'n' Andy" will return to the CBS radio Sunday night setup tonight at 8 o'clock.

Bayreuth 'Parsifal'

Excerpts from Richard Wagner's last opera, "Parsifal," will be presented as recorded at Wagner's own opera house as part of this year's Bayreuth Opera Festival, on CBS radio's "World Music Festivals" this afternoon at 2.35 o'clock.

The opera will be conducted by Hans Knappertsbusch. James Fassett, music commentator, will recreate for the radio audience some of the sights and scenes of the village where Wagner lived and composed, and which has become a living monument to his operas. The production is directed by Wagner's grandson, Wieland Wagner.

Among the singers who will take part in the broadcast will be Hans Hotter as Amfortas, Joseph Greindl as Gurnemanz, Wolfgang Windgasses as Parsifal, Gustav Neidlinger as Klingsor, and Hetty Pluemacher as Kundry.

To Join Wife

Clyde Newhouse, the husband of Maggi McNellis, will take over a segment of his wife's "Maggi's Magazine" radio show on WABC every Monday, beginning tomorrow, to give an "entertainment roundup of New York." He will cover the latest doings in movies, the theater and night spots, as well as report column-type items on celebrities.

He has teamed with Maggi before on her radio stanzas in what's-going-on-in-New York sessions. The program is heard weekdays at 12:15 p.m.

Soprano to Sing

Lucine Amara, young American soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, will join the roster of great artists on the "Telephone Hour" when she is guest soloist with the symphonic orchestra under the direction of Donald Voorhees on Monday over NBC radio at 9 o'clock. Miss Amara has, in the past two seasons at the Metropolitan Opera, become one of the outstanding new singing stars.

For her debut program she has selected two arias: Micaela's aria from Bizet's "Carmen," and Musetta's Waltz from Puccini's "La Boheme." Completing her part of the program she also will offer "When I Have Sung My Songs," by Ernest Charles.

Voornees will direct the orchestra in the "Sabre Dance" from the "Gayne" suite by Khatchaturian, "La Calinda," from Deluis' "Koanga," and "The Enchanted Lake," by Liadov.

On Five Nights

"The Great Gildersleeve," starring Willard Waterman as the blustering water commissioner of a mythical Summerfield, returns to NBC radio as a five-nights-a-week show tonight from 10:15 to 10:30 o'clock, and will be aired Sundays through Thursdays.

Many of the plots of the situation comedy series will be a complete comedy vignette and others will continue the storyline through several broadcasts.

Favorite "Gildy" characters will return to the show, including Walter Tetley in the role of Leroy, the ubiquitious nephew of Gilledrsleeve; and Lillian Randolph as Birdie, the housekeeper. Others will be Gildy's niece, Marjorie (Marylee Robb); her husband, Bronco (Dick Crenna); Peavy, the druggist (Richard LeGrande); Judge Hooker (Earl Ross), and Police Chief Bates (Ken Christy).

IRISH FOOTBALL

WNYC will broadcast a play-by-play description of the all-Ireland football final direct from Croke Park, Dublin, today from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The pickup marks the first broadcast for the game in this country. Michael O'Mehir, sportscaster for B.B.C. and Radio Eire, will describe the action.

VIEWERS MOSTLY WRONG

Robert Carroll having been revealed to be the actor in the title role of "The Stranger," statistics on viewers' guesses have now been tabulated. His identity was nailed down as, among others, Bogart, Perry Como, Bela Lugosi, Victor Borge and Senator Symington, but Louis, Jourdan and Johnny Barrymore, Jr., rolled up top scores.
