projects.

The retirement next Tuesday of Donald S. Sammis, vice president in charge of manufacturing for the Underwood corporation and former manager of the company's plants here, was announced yesterday by L. S. Stowell, company

Mr. Sammis began his service with Underwood in 1935 and served as works manager here until 1947 when he was appointed vice president in charge of the company's Hartford works. He was transferred to the executive offices in New York city in 1950.

Born In Stratford

Born in Stratford, Mr. Sammis attended Center school and was graduated from Stratford high school in 1906. He attended Sheffield Scientific school of Yale university where he received his degree in mechanical engineering.

From 1911 until 1913 he was employed by the Baird Machine company of Stratford, the Ives Manufacturing company here and the Griscom-Russell company of New York city. He returned to the Ives company where he worked until World War I.

In 1919 following his return to civilian life after serving as an officer in the 301 reserve regiment, 76 division, engineering corps, Mr. Sammis joined the New Haven Sand Blast company.

In 1932 Mr. Sammis became Town manager of Stratford, a post he held until his association with Underwood in 1935.

He is a member of the Reserve Officers association, the Society of American Military engineers, the Yale Engineering association and the Housatonic Yacht club where he served as commodore. He serves as à director for the Acme Shear company, the First National Bank and the City Savings bank. He is chairman of the United Hospital fund in Bridgeport.

He is a charter member of the Anderson-Dunn-Kochiss post No. 42, American Legion and past commander. He has served as trustee of the First Congregational church and chairman of the church finance the Stratford Library board and Stratford Historical society, He has also served in official capacity on boards of the Red Cross, YMCA. Pomperaug Boy Scout council and Community Chest. Last year Mr. Sammis was elected vice president of the Bucknell University Fathers' association. Made Host of Friends

In announcing Mr. Sammis' retirement. Mr. Stowell said that during his active service with the company Mr. Sammis made a host of friends while advancing Underinterests throughout the

"We know," Mr. Stowell said, "that Don Sammis has always given faithful service and inspired leadership in carrying out his duties. He generously devotes his time and talent to community affairs as well and his community is indeed fortunate to have a citizen of his ability and stature."

Mr. Sammis will be feted Monday at a luncheon in the Algonquin club with Mr. Stowell acting Cartoon Carpival as host. Other company officials who will attend the luncheon will be L. E. Lentz, vice president in charge of engineering and research, retired; D. J. Crombie, diffector of manufacturing, V. F. Schneble, Hartford Works manager; C. A. Dundore, plant works manager here; Norman H. Butt, retired assistant works manager, and H. C. Edgerton, works manager of the
