A couple of familiar faces—Kentucky and LaSalle-stood out today as the college basketball season entered the first full week of action around the country.

The Wildcats, in fact, have an opportunity to set a school record Saturday when they play Xavier of Ohio on the enemy court They've already equalled their all-time winning streak of 26 games and if they beat Xavier, Coach Adolph Rupp can point to another record

The reconstructed Wildcats have played only one game, but it was an impressive 74-58 victory over Louisiana State Saturday night. The big gun was Phil (Cookie) Grawemeyer, a 6-7 veteran from last year's unbeaten outfit

The Wildcat triumph combined Bandstand with Alabama's 50-45 defeat by St. Louis, left many 2 wet e.g. in the Louis, left many a wet eye in the Southeastern Conference 'Bama was figured as the one team with a chance to edge Kentucky out of the league title The St Louis game wasn't a league encounter but it proved Alabama a disappointment.

LaSalle, the NCAA champion last year, now shows a 2-0 mark and should emerge the class of the East. The Explorers got past their series of the proved Last year. East. The Explorers got past then first major test last night when they thumped Loyola of New Orleans 85-71 with All-American Tom Gola dropping in 27 points—16 in the second half fact, since Niagara dropped Fordham 71-65 the Purple Eagles could emerge LaSalle's main contender for eastern honors

If the opening days of the season provide an indication of the future, this could develop into a wild and wooly year Already a whole handful of the big boys have been beaten. Michigan State Minnesota, Western Kentucky, Wasnington State. Santa Clara, Kansas State, Bradley, Oklahoma Missouri and Brigham Young have tasted

Both Kansas State and Brigham Young will have an opportunity to atone for their shortcomings tonight in the top games on the schedule K-State visits Arizona and Brigham Young is at Colorado for the second of a two-games-in-threedays series. Colorado, the detending champion of the Big Seven defeated the Cougars Saturday 88-66
