The papers were travel orders and were not classified, said Earle Hightower, security chief at the 10 30-HIT PARADE: Musical dramatization AEC's Camp Mercury, where atomic tests are due to start next month The camp is 60 miles northeast of here. Hightower gave this account:

James A. Hoffman, 36, technician of the University of California radiation laboratory at Livermore, Calif., arrived by plane at Las Vegas last Wednesday to participate in the tests, scheduled to start next month.

Two other members of the AEC staff met him and they drove to the Silver Slipper cafe, where they dined. After dinner they discovered a window of their locked car broken and Hoffman's two suitcases missing. The suitcases were found Thursday by two youngsters on a Las Vegas street. The clothing was intact. But an envelope containing papers was missing, along with an electric razor and combat boots. Hightower said in the luggage were two envelopes, one containing Hoffman's travel orders and the other a dummy set of travel or-velope was missing. A search is underway for the papers.

ders. The envelope containing the dummy set was in the suitcase,

Hightower said, but the other en-
