

TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

The European accent of Count Carlo de Ricci on CBS radio's "Second Mrs. Burton" serial is the McCoy. It is the natural voice of Dino DiLuca, famed Italian actor playing his first English-speaking role on American radio.

Now in his early 60's, Mr. DiLuca has been acting since he was 19 years old. He decided in favor of the stage when he saw his first play at the age of 10, but bowed first to his sea-faring father's insistence that he take his diploma at the Nautical Institute.

Under such gifted directors as Reinhardt and Dario Niccolini, he toured Europe and South America in Italian and French repertory, and starred at Rome's Teatro delle Arte.

"The Second Mrs. Burton" is heard daily, Monday through Friday, over WCBS at 2 p.m.

heard daily, Monday through Friday, over WCBS at 2 p.m.

Army Band Series Lily Windsor, lyric soprano, will be the guest soloist on "Freedom Songs" tomorrow night from 9:30 to 9:55 o'clock over WABC radio.

The "Freedom Speaker" will be Mrs. Theodore S. Chapman, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. The program features the 86-piece United States Army band under the direction of its commanding officer, Major Hugh Curry.

Musical Salutes Four special salutes will be given in music on the "Band of America" program tomorrow night over NRC radio at 9:30 o'clock.

Paul Lavalle will open the program with Kent Cooper's march, "The Spirit of Freedom" as a tribute to Thomas A. Edison, whose birthday is Feb. 11 and to Abraham Lincoln on the occasion of his birthday on Feb. 12. Mr. Cooper is executive director of the Associated Press.

The second salute will go to "Crusade for Freedom," a project of the American Heritage Foundation, starting its annual drive on Lincoln's birthday.

The U. S. Military Academy at West Point will be honored with its "official" march by Phillip Ecker, on the occasion of the release of the new film, "The Long Gray Line" which tells the West Point story.

"Hail to the Boy Scouts" by Nick and Charles Kenny will be the last of the salutes. The organization will celebrate the 45th anniversary of its founding.

Other numbers selected by Lavalle for the program will be "Il Bacio" by Arditi; "A Whale of a Tale" from "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea" by Hoffman and Gimbel; and Wagner's "Ride of the Valkyries" in an arrangement by Lavalle.

Domestic Policy Following up last week's look at Italy, the "American foreign policy," "America's Town Meeting of the Air" will view "The 84th Congress and Domestic Policy" with key congressmen debating the topic in a full hour forum at Jackson College, Miss., to be heard over WNAV and WARC tonight at 9 o'clock.

Guests for this broadcast will be Representatives Charles B. Brownson (R-Ind.) and Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio). Brownson is a member of the Government Operations committee and Hays is a member of the House Foreign Affairs committee. During the discussion, special emphasis will be placed on taxes, health insurance, public vs. private power and federal support of highway construction.

Atlanta Symphony The Atlanta Symphony orchestra, directed by its regular conductor Henry Snopkin, will present a special broadcast program, marking its 10th anniversary tonight over NBC radio from 7 to 7:55 o'clock. Snopkin directed this orchestra in two broadcasts in NRC's "Orchestra of the Nations" series several years ago.

The program will open with the "Symphony No. 4 in E-flat" by Beethoven. This work is often attributed to varying romantic inspirations and is one of Beethoven's most serene creations.

The second half of the concert will be devoted to two works Richard Strauss will be represented by his symphonic poem "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks." The concert will be concluded with the "White Peacock" by George T. Griffes, the American composer.

Kreisler Tribute A special salute to the 8th birthday of the violinist Fritz Kreisler will be presented on WRCB radio's "Music You Want" tonight from 12:05 to 12:55 o'clock. Mr. Kreisler was 80 years old on Wednesday.

The birthday salute will include famous Kreisler selections. In addition, Mr. Kreisler will relate little-known incidents and anecdotes in his life. Ben Grauer will be host for the birthday salute portion of the program.

"Requiem Mass" Verdi's great "Requiem Mass" will be presented by Guido Cantelli in the final week of his first series as guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra on CBS radio this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Soloists in this impressive work will be Herva Nelli, soprano; Clarence Tuener, contralto; Richard Tucker, tenor; and Jerome Hines, bass. The Westminster Choir, under the direction of Dr. John Finley Williamson, will sing the choral part of the work.

Because of the length of the work, the customary interview features will be omitted. James Fazzoli will return for another series of performances with his orchestra on Sunday, March 6, with Walter Gieseking as piano soloist.

Renata Tebaldi, Italian soprano, will make her "Telephone Hour" debut Monday night over WRCB radio at 9 o'clock. She will join Donald Voorhees and the orchestra in an all-Puccini concert.

FORMER ACTING 'KIDS' ON 'JUVENILE JURY'

"The Kid" of 35 years ago will be among the "child-star" guests due to visit some current "kids" in show business on "Juvenile Jury" today (NBC-TV, 4 p.m.).

Sitting in as a guest panelist for one question will be Jackie Coogan, whose acting career started as "The Kid" in the Charlie Chaplin film when he was four years old; Dickie Moore, who has been appearing in films for almost all of his 29 years; Bobby Breen, former boy singer some years ago, and Robin Morgan, youthful television actress and herself a former Juvenile Juror. Jack Barry, as moderator, will get in his share of kidding.

RISE STEVENS STARS AS GUEST SOLOIST

Rise Stevens, one of the foremost mezzo-soprano of all time, will be guest soloist when "The Voice of Firestone" is simulcast over the ABC television and radio networks Monday, from 8:20 to 9 p.m.

Famous as a star of opera, TV, radio, movies and recordings, Miss Stevens is one of the Metropolitan Opera Association's greatest drawing cards. Among her best known operas are "Carmen" and "Samson et Dalila," from the latter of which two selections will be heard on the program.
