TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

Covering every aspect of the book world—from writing and production to the finished product of the great classics and varied categories of contemporary works, the third annual WNYC Book Festival (April 1 through 7) will feature 100 special programs as well as special literary themes throughout all regular programs. The most ambitious special literary programming undertaken by radio to date, the eight-day Festival is set to surpass the previous two WNYC successes Top stars of stage, screen, television and radio will be heard in special readings and discussions programs, while leading contemporary authors and critics will be featured in a variety of programs, covering all phases of the literary world.

One of the many highlights will be Justice William O Douglas who will be heard twice daily (at noon and 7 p m) throughout the Festival reading excerpts from his noted book, "An Almanac of Liberty"

Among the other noted personalities who will be heard are Helen Hayes, Raymond Massey, Carl Sandburg, Clifton Fadiman, Thomas Mitchell, Fred Allen, Bennett Cerf, John K M McCaffery, James Melton, Ogden Nash, Carl Carmer, Basil Rathbone, Burl Ives Will Ouisler Sean O'Casey, Mildred Dunnock Sheppard Strudwick, Rex Stout Allan Nevins, Virginia Peterson Elizabeth Janeway and a score of others

Of special interest is the program 'Books for Understanding Russia' (Saturday April 2 3 to 3 30 p m) with foremost authorities George S Counts Marshall MacDuffie, Harrison Salisbury and Ernest J Simmons in a discussion which will help to blueprint a better knowledge of the Soviet Union and its people

Then on the lighter side, there is the rib-tickling 'What's So Funny (Monday April 4 8 30 to 8 55 p m) with the rollicking team of Fred Allen, Bennett Cerf and Ogden Nash In addition there will be the premier of Carl Sandburg, the poet, reading selected compositions the late Dylan Thomas reading from his own works, a discussion between Madame Pandit and her writer-daughter Nyantara Sahgal on growing up in India, discussions on ghost writing mysteries science fiction poetry great classics children's books teenage reading and a host of others

Cantelli Conducts

Guido Cantelli will conduct the New York Philharmonic-Symphony in a concert of music by Handel Beethoven Barber and Respighi on CBS radio this afternoon, starting at 2 30 o'clock

The hour-and-a half concert will open with one of the most celebrated melodies ever written the Largo from Handel's 'Xerxes," which has become a celebrated song, an organ piece, and has been arranged in a dozen instrumental versions

Beethoven's Symphony No 7 in A Major will be the major work on the program It has been recorded by the Philharmonic under the direction of Bruno Walter for Columbia Records.

The program will close with two works written in Rome in the early part of this century The first, Samuel Barber's Adagio for String Orchestra, was first written by Barber as the slow movement of a string quartet, when he was a fellow at the American Academy in Rome in 1936 It was first performed by a string orchestra led by Arturo Toscanini two years later The closing work on the program Ottorino Respighi's symphonic poem "The Pines of Rome' was composed in Rome in 1924 and first performed in America at a Philharmonic concert in 1926, with Toscanini conducting

Stassen on Air

The address by Harold E. Stassen at the Klein Memorial Auditorium on Monday night will be carried by WNAB, starting at 9 o'clock.

The talk will be the fourth annual Frank Jacoby lecture and will be presented under the auspices of the University of Bridgeport.

Shaw Is Subject

George Bernard Shaw the late and great playwright, will be discussed by such varied persons as an American-born peeress, a famous Socialist and his own publisher when WRCA radio presents another of its 'Biographies in Sound' tonight at 7 o'clock

Lady Astor is the peeress she will relate anecdotes drawn from her warm personal recollection of Shaw

Norman Thomas is the Socialist and he will analyze Shaw's particular brand of Socialism

Edward Dodd Jr president of Dodd Meand and Co will discuss the problems of publishing Shaw

Others on this sound biography will include Hesketh Pearson official biographer of GBS John Parker, member of the British Parliament and head of the Fabian Society founded by Shaw, Vincent Sheean author and close friend of Shaw's Lawrence Langer, of Cannondale codirector of the Theater Guild, Blanche Patch Shaw's personal secretary and Leonard Lyons columnist Tape recordings of Shaw's own voice will be heard

Atomic Future

'What's in Our Peacetime Atomic Future?' will be the subject on 'America's Town Meeting of the Air tonight at 8 o'clock over WNAB and WABC The program will originate in Detroit under the auspicies of the Detroit Board of Commerce

The discussion will concern the use of atomic energy as it will effect the public Medical applications home heating industrial power and what it will mean to the auto owner and the housewife in the kitchen will be brought into the discussion

Featured Singer

Hans Herbert, who is the featured singer on the German-American Hour, heard Wednesday nights from 8 to 9 o'clock over WNAB, has sung in Germany and California. The lyric-baritone was born in Germany and started his operatic and concert career there. He studied at the Loewe Conservatory of Music, and also was instructed by his aunt, Hertha Loehnhof, Lola Beeth, a noted opera singer, and Leo Taubman, instructor and accompanist of Metropolitan Opera stars.

Mr. Herbert, who lives in New Rochelle, N. Y., was featured in many service programs while he was in the Navy.

New Format

A new format of "To France—With Music" will begin over WQXR on Tuesday and will be heard each Tuesday and Thursday from 7 05 to 7 30 p m Continuing under the co-sponsorship of Air France and French Government Tourist Office, the broadcast will have the over-all theme, "A Bouquet of France"—a words-and-music picture of places in that country as seen through the eyes of Jacques Fray who was born there.

Through comment and music, this gay new musical series will trans-

ABBOTTS SEEK KILLER

"The Clue of the Ivory Thread" leads Les Damon and Claudia Morgan to a grave robber and murderer during "The Adventures of the Abbotts" tonight (NBC radio, 8 30-9 p m). In this story an unethical psychiatrist (portrayed by film star John Ridgley) who seeks a dress on which a treasure map is embroidered in ivory thread.

During World War II, British naval losses totaled 2,831 vessels.

BOSTON POPS
IN A
SPECIAL PERFORMANCE
TONIGHT
— 8:30 P.M. —

Everybody loves the Boston Pops. There are few pleasures greater than listening to your favorite compositions as played with brilliance and tonal beauty given them by the famous Boston Pops orchestra, conducted by Arthur Fiedler. Hear these wonderful Boston Pops albums on

RCA VICTOR RECORDS

"Mr. Strauss Comes to Boston", (Johann Strauss, Jr.) — recreates the famous concert of polkas, waltzes and quadrilles that dazzled Boston in 1872

"Peter And The Wolf", (Prokofieff) and Sorcerer's Apprentice (Dukas). Favorite fables entrancingly narrated by Richard Hale.

"The Family Altogether". Informal charming music — from Rachmaninoff to Pop Goes The Weasel — intended to bring pleasure to parents and children just becoming friendly with music.

"Gaite Parisienne" — In High Fidelity (Offenbach). A sparkling performance of the favorite ballet of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. Album also includes Les Patineurs, (Meyerbeer).

"Fiedler's 25th". The top favorite selections with his audiences during Fiedler's 25 years as conductor

"Classical Music For People Who Hate Classical Music". This beautiful music thrills all listeners.
