REDS MAY OFFER TO PULL TROOPS OUT OF AUSTRIA

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

(AP Foreign News, Apalyst)
PARIS, April 10—(AP) There is a strong possibility the Soviet Union will offer to pull its troops com- Gobel, NBC. pletely out of Austria, thus removing the last obstacle to an Austrian independence treaty.

It would be a strong move which could embarrass the United States | CBS. and exert strong influence on those] Germans who still hope negotiations one day will lead to the reunification of Germany.

The meaning of twin announcements in Moscow Saturday-one dealing with the Austria treaty and the other with abrogation of friendship treaties with France and Britain - was clear. Revision Policy

It was a revision once again to the Soviet carrot-and-stick technique in Moscow's desperate battle against the rearmament of Western Germany. If the technique is to have any success at all, the carrot phase of it must be spectac-

The Moscow announcements represent the opening gun of a new all-out Soviet offensive which has overtones of desperation.

In three years, if nothing is done to halt the process, there will Western Germany whose presence, combined with the power of the United States and a unity of determination in Western Europe, could immobilize the communist movement even in the orient.

If world communism, headed by the Soviet Union, contemplates expanding against lines of least resistance in the orient Western Europe becomes its military rear. The growth of Allied power there makes that rear all too vulnerable should the communist movement, unable to brake itself, plunge willy nilly across the line between peace and war.

Reasons Apparent

Soviet reasoning on the Austria question has been apparent to observers in Central Europe for some of the Air time now, and there has been an expectation of a spectacular move, particularly among Western military observers.

The Soviet Union can withdraw from Austria at little cost to itself militarily. It does not with- George Skinner draw far. The old excuse about Soviet lines of communication requiring the presence of Russian troops in Austria no longer hold: any water. The Soviet Union Wi have troops in Hungary and Czech oslovakia under the new militar arrangements of the Eastern bloc undertaken as a counter-measure to the Western defensive system.

But such a move at this p can be annoying to the West. Th value of Austria to the Soviet union in the event of war does not li so much in the presence of Sovie troops in the Eastern zone. Th Russians already control the plain beyond that. The value would lie in denying the high ground in th West to the troops of the Western alliance. That position guards in vasion routes to Italy and Western Europe

Guarantees Sought Thus, if Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov can extract from th Austrians ironclad guarantees tha they will not become members of any Western alliance aimed at th Soviet union-and that by Sovi reckoning means any Western all ance at all-the Soviet union ca agree to withdraw its troops from Austria and remove the last barrie to an independence treaty. Th West would be obliged to go alon with this.

It is not the independence of Aus tria which is at stake in this o fensive so much as the future of th West German army, Such a spectac ular Soviet move would most surly resurrect the hopes of Germa nationalism for a unified German to such a degree that agitation against conscription for the Ge man army could be expected to intense. This would be coupled wi a twin Soviet drive to lure the Ge mans by means of trade relation ships. All this is the carrot phase of the new offensive. Stick Phase

The stick phase lies in the annu ment of the friendship treatis with Britain and France. The So et union was obliged to do this carry out Molotov's threats ma before ratification of the Par agreements on German rearm ment.

The aim of this is to crate th impression in the West that t danger of war is increasing becau of the militarization of German Soviet talk will continue harsh this respect for some time to com

But the Soviet approach can expected to change suddenly aga in the not too distant future. can be expected to turn once aga to soft words of peace and coexis ence, when once it is demonstra to Western Europe-and particula ly Western Germany-that there hope of concrete results from neg tiations with the Soviet union. The USSR is not going to give Eastern Germany. But there nothing to prevent Moscow fro talking about it and from hint about it. Such talk and hints bound to have a powerful politi effect in both Germany and Fran and from the Soviet point of vi might be valuable in impeding progress of an integrated West system of defenses.

$500.000 FIRE HITS TOWN IN VIRGINIA

BOWLING GREEN, Va., April 10-(AP) An Easter Sunday fire. fanned by high winds, swept through three-fourths of the business district of this Virginia community of 700 persons today. Firemen finally brought it under control after a four-hour battle.

When firefighters got the upper hand about 6 p.m., only six buildings remained standing in a fourblock business area along the town's main street-which is U. S. 301. Eighteen were destroyed.

Initial damage estimates ranged all the way from $300,000 to $700,-000. Observers at the scene said half a million dollars might turn out to be conservative, depending on the amount of-merchandise salvaged.

The highest figure—$750.000—was given out by Mayor J. W. Dejarnette, an insurance man. Of the buildings destroyed, some were nothing more than shacks. Others were brick-but still fell victim to the raging flames.

Townspeople tonight were faced with a water shortage—the supply was exhausted by some 15 to 20 fire companies.

The town's water supply ran out about 4:30 p.m.-2 1-2 hours after the blaze began in an area behind a barn a block west of the business district. Firefighters drew on water then from nearby ponds and from two 5.000-gallon trailers brought in from Goodhland county 40 miles away.

An hour after the blaze had died down, soldiers from nearby Camp A. P. Hill patrolled the streets to prevent looting and to help the town's inhabitants clean up the rubble. No one was hurt in the blaze.

The Rio Grande is the third longest stream in the United States, exceeded only by the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers.
