TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

The first of four symphonic concerts by the world renowned Concertgebbouw orchestra of Amsterdam, Holland, will be broadcast by CBS radio this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, under the direction of the orchestra's guest conductor, Rafael Kubelik. The concerts were transcribed by Radio Nederland for CBS radio on the stage of the Concertgebouw, Amsterdam's magnificent concert hall, for which the orchestra is named. Maestro Kubelik will open the broadcast program with "The Roman Carnival" Overture by Hector Berlioz.

Appropriately, the famous Dutch orchestra will perform next the "Berkshire Symphonies" by the young Dutch composer, Jurriaan Andriessen, who wrote the music for a documentary film about the Berkshire Music Center in Lenox, Mass., on a commission by the late Serge Koussevitzky. After its completion, Andriessen was commissioned by the Dutch government to write a symphony which he called "Berkshire Symphonies." He completed it in Lenox and dedicated it to Dr. Koussevitzky. The program will close with a performance of the Tchaikovsky Symphony No. 6 in B minor ("Pathetique").

The Concertgebouw orchestra made its first American tour in the fall of 1954. Its musical director, Eduard van Beinum, and its commercial director, Dr Herman Waage, will be heard on the broadcast discussing briefly the reactions of the musicians to our country and to the people for whom they played.

Dramatic Series

A new series of dramatized supernatural stories and strange human experiences titled "Strange," will premiere over WABC radio on Monday night from 7:30 to 7:45 o'clock, as a Monday through Friday series.

Walter Gibson, writer and investigator in the field of the supernatural, will be the narrator and will supervise each dramatization.

Each night a complete story will be told. The drama will follow the theme, "Do You Believe in Ghosts?" This is the first series based on such experiences.

Jazz for WICC

Sidney Gross, international disk jockey, will start a new "Jazz Jamboree" program on Saturday nights from 8 to 11 o'clock over WICC, beginning June 4, as the radio station adds to its list of entertaining disk jockeys.

Mr. Gross, a native of England, is presently heard over the ABC radio network coast-to-coast on "Beyond the Stars," a program of semi-classical music. He also is on WNYC in New York.

"Jazz Jamboree," will be a three-hour program of jazz for everybody, with the new member of the WICC line-up promising to make jazz interesting even to those who do not like it. One hour of each program will be devoted to a special feature during which Mr. Gross will present the "International Jazz Club," with music from more than 30 different countries, including those behind the Iron Curtain.

In addition to his broadcasting duties, Mr. Gross is also a lecturer. At present he conducts an unusual course in jazz at Columbia university which has attracted a great deal of comment. In this class, "Adventures in Jazz," he explores jazz music thoroughly, with many of the top jazz artists as guest lecturers.

Two to Speak

Senator Herbert H. Lehman (D-NY) will join Adlai E. Stevenson, titular head of the Democratic party, in addressing the American Jewish Tercentenary closing ceremonies at Carnegie hall, New York, in an exclusive CBS radio broadcast on Wednesday night from 10:30 to 11 o'clock. Both Mr. Stevenson and Senator Lehman will be presented by Ralph Samuel, chairman of the American Jewish Tercentenary committee.

This program will mark the closing of the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the first Jewish settlement in America. It will include speeches by clergymen of the three major faith groups in America.

'Ranger' on NBC

"The Lone Ranger," one of the nation's oldest, continuous radio programs—now in its 23rd year—will "ride" the NBC radio wavelength Mondays through Fridays starting tomorrow afternoon from 5:30 to 5:55 o'clock. The program has been signed for 52 weeks.

Fennell Conducts

Frederick Fennell will be guest conductor of the Boston Pops orchestra Monday night for its broadcast over NBC radio from 8:15 to 9 o'clock.

For the broadcast concert Fennell has selected four numbers. "Pomp and Circumstance No. 1" by Elgar; "Oberon" Overture by Weber, "Pavanne for a Dead Princess" by Ravel; and "Roumanian Rhapsody No 1" by George Enesco Encore numbers will be announced during the broadcast from Symphony Hall in Boston.

Memorial Day

A special Memorial Day service at Arlington National Cemetery with Vice President Richard N. Nixon as the principal speaker, will be broadcast Monday morning at 11 o'clock over WABC radio. The services are conducted by the DAR Memorial Day Corporation, an organization created by an act of Congress.

"From the Spirit of '76 to Korea" will be the title of a special Memorial Day concert which will be broadcast over WQXR on Monday afternoon from 3:05 to 4 o'clock. Music associated with the conflicts in which America has been involved from the Revolution to Korea will be included. War songs and melodies will be reminiscent of the American Revolution, the War of 1812, the Civil War, World Wars One and Two and the Korean conflict.

15th Birthday

"Invitation to Learning," CBS radio's Sunday morning series of discussions of great books, under the chairmanship of Dr. Lyman Bryson will observe its 15th birthday when it is heard this morning at 11:30 o'clock.

For 15 years, without summer hiatus (unusual in a radio program) "Invitation to Learning" has offered each week an informed and stimulating discussion by two guest panelists of a great book. More than 750 books have been analyzed, representing the literature of more than 15 countries. There have been between 500 and 600 different guests on the program. There are no prepared scripts. The panelists ad lib as does Dr. Bryson himself.

Sings Lead

Rise Stevens, Metropolitan Opera diva, stars in the television color spectacular, "The Chocolate Soldier," which will be seen on Channels 4 and 8 Saturday night from 9 to 10:30 o'clock. Eddie Albert and Akim Tamiroff co-star in this Oscar Straus musical.

Telecast TOPICS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

Plans for four hour-and-a-half Special productions to be presented on NBC-TV during the summer months have been announced by Jack Ravel, executive producer of the series. To be presented in black and white only, the Specials will be seen in the time-spots occupied during the winter months by producer Max Liebman's Saturday and Sunday nights live color Spectaculars. First of the summer Specials will be seen on Sunday, June 19 (7:30 to 9 p. m.) when Herbert Bayard Swope, Jr., will produce and direct "Remember—1938."

A nostalgic program built around the year 1938, and written by Luther Davis and Charles Isaacs, it will touch on the humorous and serious aspects of that calendar year—its favorite dramas, musical comedies, radio programs and movies. Groucho Marx, the comedian, will appear as host-commentator for the show, which will be produced in Hollywood. Other guests will include Ethel Barrymore, actress; Oscar Levant, pianist and Gordon Jenkins and his orchestra.

There will be two other Sunday shows during the season, one on July 17 and the other on Aug. 14.

The Saturday summer Specials (NBC-TV, 9 to 10:30 p. m.) will be inaugurated on July 2 when Mr. Roval will go to Hollywood to produce and direct a show in cooperation with a major Hollywood motion picture studio.

On Saturday, July 30, Alan Handley will present a musical version of the George du Maurier novel, "Trilby," titled "Svengali and the Blonde." This musical, which is to be presented from Hollywood, will star Carol Channing in the role of Trilby, Basil Rathbone as Svengali and Russell Arms in the role of Billy. Mss Barrymore will appear as the narrator for the play.

Third of the Saturday Night Specials will be presented on Aug. 27 when the musical comedy "One Touch of Venus," following a two-week run at the Dallas State Fair from Aug. 1 to Aug. 14, is brought to New York. It will be directed by George Schaefer with Mr. Ravel handling the production. The revival of the hit musical will star Russel Nype and George Gaynes. The leading lady has not yet been announced.

Parade on Video

Larry McNamara, the WNHC-TV news commentator, will describe the annual Memorial Day parade in New Haven, telecast by remote pickup over Channel 8 tomorrow at 10 a.m. New Haven dignitaries, representatives of various branches of the armed forces and other members of the colorful celebration will march down Chapel street to the New Haven Green.

WNHC TV will join the parade at 10 a.m. and bring viewers a "curbstone view" of the festivities for one half-hour. Special scaffolds will be erected on Chapel street on which Channel 8 cameras will be placed. From this vantage point viewers will be able to see several city blocks at one time of the parade. Telescopic lenses will bring interesting events right up to the viewers' screens.

Support Urged

From Edward N. Bliss, Jr., chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the office of the Public Defender for the County of Los Angeles, comes a letter urging support for the CBS television program, "Public Defender" which is to go off the air after 13 months of weekly appearances. Mr. Bliss says the program has done much to bring Public Defender offices to the attention of the public and in behalf of the unfortunate persons who might some day need the services of a Public Defender he feels the program should be continued. He suggests that viewers interested in continuance of the program write to Hal Roach, Jr., Culver City, Calif.

Quite a Jump

Can you picture a onetime "Dead End" kid doing a wholesome, rollicking television series for young children? Well, that is just what chubby Johnny Coons is doing today.

The ever-chuckling one-man star of "Uncle Johnny Coons," shows on CBS television Saturday afternoons at 1:30 o'clock, has a simple explanation for his transition from a stage role in the national company of Sidney Kingsley's 1937 hit play, "Dead End," to his present hour-and-a-half of television fun and nonsense for tykes:

"I gained some weight and lost some hair."

Actually, Uncle Johnny is a keen student of child psychology and knows how to tickle a tiny rib or two. The father of four sons—David, 15, Douglas, 12, Rickey, 9, and Tommy, 5—Coons says his success formula for entertaining small children is that he doesn't get down to the kids' level—"I get beneath it."

Devotional Service

Dr Theodore F. Adams, pastor of the First Baptist church of Richmond, Va., will be the officiating clergyman on "Frontiers of Faith" this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the NBC television religious program presents a devotional service in cooperation with the Radio and TV Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. His sermon subject will be "Life's Four Great Hours."

The church choir will sing "Come, Thou Almighty King," "How Firm a Foundation," "Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart."

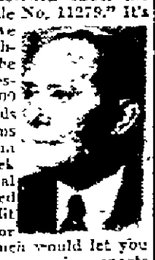
By "JOE" LEDERER

The Federal Communications Commission has labeled the current battle for and against pay-as-you-look television under the heading of "File No. 11279." It's the most active file in Washington at the moment. An estimated 9,500 letters, postcards and telegrams are included in it, and last week the unofficial tally indicated the file was split 8,000 – 1,500 for the system, which would let you watch first run movies, sports events and dramas on your set at home . . . only if you pain



By the way, we've received some of the finest General Electric Automatic Washers I have ever seen. They're beauties, all have the advanced new features and prices start at a low, low $199.95. Be sure to see the new Filter-Flo G-E Washer that actually filters and refilters the wash water.

Rocky Graziano joins comic Henny Youngman in a show scheduled to follow the Wednesday night boxing bouts when they shift to the ABC network on June 1st. Graz ano made the step from the boxing ring to the TV studio through his appearances on the Martha Raye show.

Next time that you plan to buy a TV — make it a G-E. I've had them in my home for years and I can vouch for those bright, clear, sharp pictures. Down at the store we have a big selection of those powerful new 1955 models—and G.E. even has a big 21" console for only $199.95. Next time you're downtown, stop in won't you?

A new series which will try to do for psychiatry what Menic is doing for the medicine has been given the green light by the American Psychiatric Association. The Association will cooperate with the producers at Hal Roach studios. The series will be filmed under the title, "Point of Crisis."
