

Extra Swim Classes Required By Overflow Registration

STRATFORD

Registration for swimming classes conducted by the Town Recreation department has exceeded the enrollment of past years to the extent that new class hours have had to be established for both beginners and intermediates. James Penders, recreation supervisor, has announced.

A new Beginners swim class for children having their own transportation will be conducted in Longbrook park on Thursday and Friday mornings at 10:15 o'clock. Mr. Penders said.

There will be a new class for intermediates at 11 a.m. on the same mornings to take care of the overflow of candidates this year. Children interested in any of the classes may register at the pool with the instructors.

NEHRU READIES 'STEP' ON PORTUGUESE INDIA

NEW DELHI, India, July 24 (AP)—Authoritative sources said tonight Prime Minister Nehru will announce a "bold new step" tomorrow concerning Portuguese India.

The informants said Nehru has asked for meeting with the Portuguese chargé d'affaires before addressing Parliament. A government spokesman declined to comment on rumors circulating here that Nehru will announce a break in diplomatic relations with Portugal.

India has long claimed the Portuguese enclave on the subcontinent should be incorporated in India.

Reports reaching New Delhi tonight said all railway traffic between India and Goa has been stopped. Observers in New Delhi took this as an indication the Indian government's new step might involve a tightened economic blockade.

IRAN EX-PREMIER DIES

TEHRAN, Iran, July 24 (AP)—Ahmed Qavam Es-Sultani, five times premier of Iran and a cabinet minister 20 times, died yesterday at his home in Tehran after a brief illness.

His exact age was unknown, but he was believed to have been about 80. Qavam died just three years after his last—and briefest— premiership. Named to replace Mohammed Mossadegh in July 1952, he held office less than a week. Armed mobs rampaging through the streets demanded Mossadegh's return forced Qavam to resign and demanded him as a British American puppet.

In contrast to his period of disgrace under Mossadegh, Qavam's funeral today was attended by Premier Hussain Ali, the cabinet and members of Parliament who adjourned today's session as a mark of respect. Kardafakher Helemek, speaker of the Majlis (lower house of Parliament), delivered a eulogy praising Qavam's "nationalistic moves" during his 1946-47 administration, when the Soviet Union appeared to threaten Iranian independence.

Qavam, reputedly a multi-millionaire, leaves his wife and a son, Hussein, who is a student in Switzerland.
