TRIAL OF 8 REDS SET FOR OCT. 6

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 7—(AP) Federal District Judge Robert P. Anderson today set Oct. 6 as the date for the trial of eight communists accused of conspiracy to violate the Smith act, which prohibits teaching or advocating the overthrow of the government by force.

The judge also named Arthur B. O'Keefe Jr., of Madison, Edward Seltzer of Hartford and Johnson Stoddard of Bridgeport as lawyers to represent some of the defendants.

They had requested that the court appoint counsel following the withdrawal of Samuel Gruber of [illegible] the case, because of an illness in his family.

Clarence Rorabeck of New Haven and Frank Donner of New York have been retained privately by the group as defense lawyers.

Judge Anderson directed that O'Keefe represent James Tate of Hartford and Jacob Goldring of Trumbull, that Seltzer represent Sidney S. Resnick of New Haven and Stoddard defend Simon Silverman, also known as Sid Taylor, of New Haven and Robert Ekins of Old Saybrook.

The other defendants are Martha Stone, also known as Mrs. Emil Asher, of Paterson, N.J., Alfred L. Marder of New Haven and Joseph Dimow of New Haven.

Judge Anderson directed that $5,750 be posted "by or on behalf of" Tate, Goldring, Resnick, Silverman and Ekins to pay the court-appointed lawyers, $2,000 each to O'Keefe and Stoddard and $1,750 to Seltzer.

The eight defendants have been indicted twice, the first time a year and a half ago. That indictment proved to contain a technical defect, and a second grand jury heard the case.
