FIRST ISSUE READIED

HARTFORD, Sept. 8—(AP) The State Fish and Game department said today that the first issue of its new Connecticut Wildlife Conservation Bulletin will make its appearance in about two weeks. The eight-page publication, edited by William J. Jahoda department chief of education, will have an initial printing of 5,000 copies.

Haiti has begun work on new hydroelectric plants at St. Marc and at Jeremie.

VET GETS TRINITY POST

HARTFORD, Sept. 8—(AP) David W. Lee of West Orange, N.J., today was named public relations assistant at Trinity college in charge of radio and television relations.

Lee, a decorated veteran of Korean combat who now is completing his studies at Trinity, will take up his new duties next week. The position, which has been vacant for the last several months, was filled last year by Robert Sind of West Hartford.
