

OBSERVERS CITE PERIL OF CRISIS IN MIDDLE EAST

By ROBERT E. HEWETT

BEIRUT, Lebanon, Oct. 30—(AP)—One more spark could ignite the Middle Eastern powder keg. That is the considered opinion held by most Arab leaders and Western diplomats since Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser made his cotton-for-guns deal with communist Czechoslovakia.

Nerves have been stretched to the snapping point by this week's repeated shooting affrays and raids along the Israel-Egyptian and Israeli-Syrian frontiers.

In Cairo an Egyptian spokesman, referring to the fighting in the El Auja-Nazara demilitarized zone, declared today:

"It is up to the United Nations to ease the tension in the zone. The situation along the front there is very tense, but our troops are prepared for any eventuality."

Hopes to Avoid War

Israeli Premier Moshe Sharett told reporters in Geneva last week in response to a question whether Israel would launch a preventive war:

"I hope to God that Israel will not be driven to this—to what might appear to be a shortcut to the solution of our grave problem." Then he added: "It's not the case of a preventive war; it's the case of meeting aggression."

In Jerusalem, an Israeli foreign ministry spokesman asserted yesterday: "If they (the Egyptians) leave us alone, we will leave them alone."

As the Egyptians and Israelis accused each other today of new troop violations of the El Auja-Nazara zone, an American diplomat described the situation:

"It's like boys tossing firecrackers around in an oil refinery—one bang at the right place can blow the whole thing up. And there doesn't seem to be much we can do about it."

Reds Stir Passions

The Soviet union's bold entry into the Middle East politics has aroused Arab passions and fanned Israeli fears. The Czechoslovak arms deal won friends among the normally anti-communist Arabs. Talk of Soviet economic aid is played up. And torch singers from Soviet Union have wood Beirut and Cairo audiences with Arabic songs.

American influence among the Arabs—already at low point because the Arabs charged United States and American Zionists were responsible for sacrificing Arabs in creating Israel—has been put on the skids by the Soviet drive.

And the seizure last week by British-officed troops or the Buraimi oasis on the disputed Saudi Arabian boundary—where there may be oil-stepped up Arab attacks on Britain.

Most American diplomats in this area do not believe the Arabs will provoke an incident which might touch off war at the present time—if only for the reason Nasser's promised Czech arms, planes and tanks are not yet in the frontlines.

Sharett's talk of a preventive war is viewed by the Arab press as "proof" of their longstanding charges of Israeli aggressive intentions. Western diplomats view it primarily as an Israeli argument to get more Western arms to offset Egypt's new weapons.

UN true observers usually have difficulty in pinning down responsibility for border clashes and they say any one might blossom into a big scale shooting now.

Report Planning

Arab legion intelligence sources in Jordan last week insisted they had information the Israeli high command was planning an attack on remote Egyptian positions which bar traffic through the Gulf of Aqaba to the Israeli port of Elath. And one usually well-informed Western source also pointed to the gulf as the point which might touch off fighting.

This view is that if the Israelis attacked Egyptian positions along the gulf—on Israel's long standing claim it had the right to protect international shipping—Nasser would be obliged to keep his young army officers in line by ordering an attack elsewhere on the Israeli border. This in turn, could lead to counter retaliation by the Israelis.

In the last fortnight Egypt has signed military alliances with Syria and Saudi Arabia aimed at repelling possible Israeli aggression. These pacts as yet are no more than paper so far as joint planning is concerned, but Egyptian involvement in big-scale fighting would lead Syria and Saudi Arabia into any conflict.

Arabs Tied Strong

Arab nationalistic ties are so strong, however, it is likely Jordan eventually may join up with her Arab neighbors despite pressure from Britain. Britain, in fact, is bound by treaty with Jordan which would oblige Britain to aid Jordan if she is attacked.

It is a depressing situation for the United States, whose policy has been to be the friend of both sides and hope for an eventual peace settlement. The United States has failed to get other Arab states to join Iraq, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan and Britain in the "northern tier" defense pact.
