TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

A complete performance of Tchaikovsky's ballet, "The Sleeping Beauty," will be WQXR's Thanksgiving Day treat for listeners on Thursday afternoon, from 2:05 to 5 o'clock. The thee-hour program will offer WQXR's first entire performance of Tchaikovsky's original score in three acts with prologue, the recording just having been released. "The Sleeping Beauty" ranks in the history of Ballet as a choreographic triumph from the prologue, where the evil Fairy casts her spell upon the infant Princess, through the Spell, the Vision, the Awakening and the Wedding. The recording to be broadcast on Thanksgiving day was made at Northrop Memorial Auditorium on the University of Minnesota campus in April 1955 by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra with Antal Dorati conducting.

"The Sleeping Beauty" was published only in a piano version following its first performance in 1890. Not until 1952 did the Russian State Music Publishing House issue a first complete printed orchestral score based on the original manuscripts and first performances. It is on this score, issued as part of the "Complete Works of Tchaikovsky," that the present recorded performance is based.

Garden Sports Out

Radio station WMGM, which for many years carried an extensive schedule of winter sports from Madison Square Garden, has decided to drop the broadcasts.

A spokesman at the station said the change was made because the radio broadcasts of basketball and hockey games "became tougher and tougher each year to sell to sponsors." Many of the Garden events are telecast by WPIX.

Meantime radio station WINS has taken on the professional hockey games from the Garden. However, this station will not carry college basketball games and will broadcast professional basketball contests only when a sponsor is available.

Blanche Thebom Guest

Blanche Thebom, mezzo-soprano will be guest soloist on "The Telephone Hour's" Thanksgiving program tomorrow night over WRCA at 9 o'clock.

In keeping with the season's theme Miss Thebom, accompanied by the symphonic orchestra and chorus, will offer Elvey's hymn, "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come." Two American songs: Edwards' "By the Bend of the River" and Rasbach's "Mountains" will be solo selections for the guest artist.

Negro Progress

A special program divided into a documentary and panel discussion reviewing the progress of the American Negro will be presented on "America's Town Meeting of the Air" tonight at 8 o'clock over WNAB and WABC. The subject for the broadcast is "How Far the Promised Land?" based on the book of the same title by the late Walter White.

The first portion of the program will be a documentary with recorded excerpts from earlier "Town Meeting" broadcasts on which White appeared. Included in this is a part of the program done from Karachi, Pakistan, in 1949 when "Town Meeting" made a world tour.

This will be followed by a panel discussion on the Negro's progress in the areas of employment, education housing and voting. Featured on this will be Roy Wilkins, executive secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Robert C. Weaver, deputy commissioner of housing, New York State; and Elmo Roper, marketing consultant and public opinion analyst. At the close of the show, Dr. Ralph J. Bunce, under-secretary of the United Nations, will make a brief statement.

Music of Mozart

For tomorrow night's broadcast of the Boston Symphony orchestra, Charles Munch, the conductor, has selected music of Mozart. The concert will open with Mozart's "Masonic Funeral Music." This performance will be dedicated to the memory of the late Olin Downes, critic and author who died this Autumn. The remainder of the program will be given over to the "Sinfinia Concertante in E Flat for Oboe, Clarinet, Bassoon, horn and orchestra." The program is heard over WRCA at 10 o'clock.

Opera To Return

The Saturday matinee performance of the Metropolitan Opera will be broadcast over WNAB beginning Dec. 3 at 2 p.m. The program will continue for 20 weeks.

Intermission features will include "Opera Quiz" with Robert Lawrence, and "Opera News on the Air", conducted by Boris Goldovsky.

Marks Anniversary

St. Cecilia's Day, honoring the patron saint of music, falls on next Tuesday and, together with other anniversaries, will be marked by Ruth Steinkraus on "Music for a Sunday Evening" over WICC tonight, starting at 8 o'clock.

The origin of St. Cecilia's achieving patronage of music is obscure. A young Sicilian who was martyred in the year 176, it was her wish not to become married. She died in church just as she was to be married. It is thought that the music that suddenly rose helped her to fulfill her wish. Miss Steinkraus will play Handel's "Ode for St. Cecilia's Day," Chabrier's "Ode to Music" and a piece by de Lassus, a Belgian who won an early St. Cecilia prize in the 16th century.

Last Friday was the birthday of Carl Maria von Weber, the founder of the German opera, and the next Wednesday is the anniversary of Manuel de Fall, the Spanish composer. Miss Steinkraus will play several of their works. If a familiar voice is heard on this program of ancients, it may be recognized as that of Frank Luther, the children's recording artist, who lives in Westport, singing the always delightful birthday song.

WOODPECKER SUITE

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A New York animal dealer, preparing a shipment of birds to the zoo here, should have known better when he packed two great spotted woodpeckers in a crate separated from each other by a wood partition.

The partition had a hole in it, and the woodpeckers, friends, no doubt, were together when the shipment arrived.
