GRAND JURY TO HEAR EVIDENCE IN STABBING

A Fairfield county grand jury may be convened some time next week to consider the case of Fred Mitchell, 17, of 147 Colorado avenue, held in the fatal stabbing of 18-year-old Peter Pastor, of 42 Carline street, during an altercation at State and Main streets Monday night.

Coroner Edgar W. Krentzman Thursday issued a finding in which he said Pastor died as a result of the criminal act of Mitchell, but the latter may not be prosecuted for murder unless he is indicted by a grand jury.
