TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

Pope Pius XII will deliver a special message in English to "Catholic Hour" listeners on the occasion of the NBC radio program's 25th anniversary broadcast this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The program, expanded from 30 minutes to a full hour for this observance, will offer a panorama of the Catholic Church all over the world today. A special feature of the broadcast will be an excerpt from the actual trial of Cardinal Mindszenty, which will enable listeners to hear his voice as he speaks in Hungarian and the "voice-over" of an English translator.

A dramatic story of the heroic life and death of Chaplain Emil Kapaun in a communist prison camp in Korea will come from Army Captain Ralph Nardella and Lieut. Col. David F. MacGhee, USAF.

Examples of the church's liturgical and sacramental aspects will be heard in a portion of a congalese Mass sung in Elizabethville, Belgian Congo, and in music by choirs of the cathedrals of Notre Dame in Paris and St. Peter's in Rome.

In a pickup from the New York docks, the Rev. John M. Corridan, SJ., the waterfront priest, will speak of his work. There also will be pickups from the USS Wisconsin as Mass is being celebrated; from the New York Foundling Home as Sister Genevieve, superintendent of intake, speaks of an infant recently found in a garbage can and how it will be cared for; from St. Vincent's hospital in New York City as Sister Loretta Bernard, its administrator, speaks of the work there.

A group of leading figures in philosophy, theology and science will speak of the church's guidance in helping men to better both his mind and the world he lives in. They are Dr. Karl Stern, chief of psychiatry at Institute Albert Provost, clinic of neuropsychiatry, Montreal, P. Q.; Dr. Anton C. Pegis, former president of the Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies, Toronto, Ont., now professor of history and philosophy there and editorial head of Catholic textbooks for the publishing house of Doubleday.

Also, the Right Rev. Msgr. William O'Connor, pastor of St. John the Evangelist parish, New York, and adjunct professor of religion at Columbia university; and Frank Sheed and Maisie Ward, the husband and wife team who run the Sheed and Ward publishing works.

Narrator for this anniversary broadcast will be the Very Rev. John J. Dougherty, professor of Sacred Scripture at the Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington, N. J.

The "Catholic Hour" is produced under the auspicies of the National Council of Catholic Men, the single national federation of organizations of Catholic men in this country.

WRCA radio will broadcast capsule stories of the historial and religious significance of the feasts of Hanukkah and Christmas from Dec. 10 through 25.

The special stories, told by children, will be integraded into WRCA radio programs, with the story of Hanukkah scheduled from Dec. 10 through Dec. 17. Dec. 10 is the first day of the eight-day Jewish Festival of Lights.

The story of Christmas will be heard from Dec. 18 through Christmas Day, Dec. 25.

Sibelius Concert

An all-Sibelius concert, honoring Finland's world-famous composer Jean Sibelius who celebrates his 90th birthday on Dec. 8, will be broadcast over WQXR from Carnegi Hall today from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. The musical program will be performed by the Symphony of the Air, conducted by Jussi Jakas of of Helsinki, with Sylvia Aarnio, soprano, as soloist.

The tribute to Sibelius also will be dedicated to the memory of his friend Olin Downes, who, through his music criticism in the New York Times, helped win recognition for Sibelius' music in the United States.
