French Works Spotlighted On Radio

By FRED H. RUSSELL

Three favorite works of the modrn French school will be performed by the Philadelphia orchestra. conducted by Eugene Ormandy, on CBS radio tonight at 9:05 o'clock.

Mr. Ormandy open the broadcast program with the Three Nocturnes by Debussy, "Nuages," "Fetes" and "Strenes," the last work performed with a wordless chorus of 16 women's voices, all members of the newly organized Philadelphia Orchestra Chorus.

Mr. Ormandy will close the program with "Suite No 2" from Ra- Movie vel's ballet "Daphnis and Chloe." a work which many consider Ravel's Film Morie masterpiece, and most frequently programmed of all his works.
