Senator Humphrey proposed a Democratic victory ball to celebrate the party's success in retaining control of Congress was proposed today by Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.).

He said the Democrats "won a vote of confidence from the American people Nov. 6, even though losing the presidency" and ought to celebrate.

Humphrey suggested that the National committee and Senate and House Democratic committees sponsor the big party, and invite Democratic governors to lead delegations from their states and "join in showing the country the great potential of future leadership in Democratic ranks."
