'King of Cats'
A fantasy, "The King of Cats," based on the story of a symphony orchestra conductor who has a tail which he uses as a baton when conducting, will be done on CBS radio "Workshop" this afternoon at 4:05 o'clock. Problems arise for the dis-tinguished musician when a ro-mance develops between him and a Siamese princess in New York City.

The story was adapted for radio by William H. Robson from a short story by Stephen W. Benet.
