WOMAN'S GUN DEATH IS DECLARED SUICIDE

TERRYVILLE, Dec. 20—(AP) State police said today that the shotgun death of a 46-year-old woman yesterday was suicide.

The ruling of suicide was made by Medical Examiner Mark Corral.

Mrs. William Kabisch was found dead on the floor of her small home here yesterday.

Her husband, 46, and a family friend, George Russell, 52, of Waterbury, found her dead yesterday. A shotgun lay beside her.

Police said the house was locked at the time, and Kabisch was found to force a window to get in.

State Police Lt. William Casey said the wound was self-inflicted, according to the autopsy. Police thought at first she was shot in the back of the head, but authorities found that the wound was actually in the side of the head, so they were satisfied she did it.

Casey said there were indications that she suffered periods of depression.

OFFICE TREE FLOPS

BAY CITY, Mich., Dec. 20—(AP) The city clerk's office put up its county-top Christmas tree this morning, gaily decorated with ornaments and Christmas greetings. But the office heat proved too much for the three-foot spruce. By afternoon every needle had dropped off. City Clerk Jim Gates picked up the branches and put the little tree outside his door with this sign: "Happy New Year, anyway."
