

TURNING the DIALS

Four of the people who participated in the world's first broadcast of a complete opera will recall the historic event next Saturday on the third intermission of the Metropolitan Opera broadcast. The opera, Verdi's "Ernani," will be heard at 2 p.m., over WNAB and WABC. The program will climax the week's celebration of the 25th anniversary of the start of the Metropolitan Opera broadcasts. The first complete opera from the Diamond Horseshoe was aired on Christmas Day, 1931. For hundreds of thousands of Americans, the program served as
