

CLARK GABLE

Clark Gable, screen idol, will star in the "radio Theater" production of Edna Ferber's "Cimarron" with Virginia Bruce over WBBM at eight o'clock tonight. Gable will play the leading role of Yancy Cravat, whose life the story is based on, and Miss Bruce will portray his wife, Sabra.

“ ” ”

Two addresses by President Franklin Roosevelt will be broadcast Tuesday from the far West where he is on a popularity-testing tour. The first talk, at 11:30 a. m. over WMAQ, will be after his visit to the Bonneville Dam, a PWA power project. The other address will be at approximately 3:30 p. m. over WENR from the Timberline Lodge.

“ ” ”

John D. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee, will speak on "The Future of the Republican Party," during the Radio Forum tonight over WENR at 9:30. . . . The beginning of the daily series of football interviews from Camp Randall will be at 6:30 p. m., when Howie Weiss is brought before the WIBA "mike" . . . Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, former director of the NRA, starts his series of current news comments over WENR tonight and Wednesday at 7:00 and Tuesday and Thursday at 9:00. . . . "The Sergeant-Major," a drama based on the out-post life of members of the French foreign legion, will be presented at 8:30 p. m. through WENR.

“ ” ”

Highlights of the annual Dairy Cattle Congress and National Horse Show will be reported in a series of three daily broadcasts from Waterloo, Ia., during the Farm and Home hour, starting Tuesday morning over WIBA at 11:30. . . . Miss Susan Desmond will be Tuesday's speaker for the Woman's Crusade series, through WIBA at 4:45.