LYL i velt to Speak on Needs Tonight m Radio tonight will present another night of variety, plus addresses by President Rooseveit, and Justice Owen J. Roberts and including guest appearances by Fred MacMurray, Madge Evans, Phil Baker, and Botſ President Roosevelt will be heard on WIBA at 9:30, speaking in the first of a series of programs on the 1937 Mobilization for Human Needs. He will sneak from his heart. ä: will speak om his home in will be introduced He from Hyde park, and will be introduced by Charles P. Taft, chairman of the mobilization committee. The musi-cal portion of the broadcast will be cal points.
given by the Pittsburgn cymporchestra, under the baton of Otto Klemperer.
E. D. Holden, of the Wisconsin college of agriculture; Earl Vandrell, Complete of agriculture, consistant Dane Stoughton teacher of agriculture; and J. W. Clark, assistant Dane county agent, will participate in a discussion on "Growing Canary Grass on Your Low Lands," during the Dane County Farm hour on WIBA at 6.

Phil B---L le TBA at 6.

Phil Baker, second of the guest stars to substitute for Burns and Allen, will broadcast with Ray Noble and Tony Martin over WIBA at 7. Harry Mc-Naughton, who plays the part of Phil's vaccum-brained butler and valct, is accompanying the accordion virtuoso to the broadcast because he wants to meet Gracle Allen, his ideal woman. Margaret Speaks will sing Henschel's "Morning Hymn." as R Gracie Allen, his ideal ...

Margaret Speaks will sing Henschel's "Morning Hymn," as her opening solo through WIBA at 7:30. The orchestra, under Alfred Wallenstein's leadership, will accompany the chorus in Kern's "Can I Forget You," and in Miss Speak's other numbers, which include "For Ever and Ever" and Sachnousky's "The Ever" and Clock." Ted Weems. Ted Weems, whose orchestra provides the music for the Fibber and Molly laughfests, has selected "Laugh Your Way Through Life" Moily laughfests, "Laugh Your Way as a curtain-raiser over WIBA at 8, 10 10 10 10 , or the show Fred MacMurray Madge and Evans will star in the Radio the-ater's production of "Up Pops the Devil" over WBBM at 8. A symphonic program with distinctly popular appeal has been arranged for the first concert in the Philadelphia orthestra's new series over WLS at 8. Eugene Ormandy will direct the applies contents. at 8, Engene Ormandy will di-rect the entire series. The University of Pennsylvania's bicentennial celebration will be heard on WIBA at 8:30. Justice Owen J. Roberts of the U. S. su-preme court will be the chief speaker.
Warden Lewis Lawes of New York's Sing Sing prison will launch a new type of program over WENR at 9, with invisible and studio audiences participating in the building of the program. The series is entitled "Behind Prison Bars."
WIBA will present Leonard Woollen and Agnes Carpenter in "Smoke Rings." at 10:15,

FARMERS

FORENSIC FARMERS
The annual public speaking contest of the Future Farmers of America will be broadcast as a special feature of the National Farm and Home hour Tuesday at 11:30 a. m., through WIBA, direct from the Municipal auditorium in Kansas City. Five finalists, including Jack Gunning of Oshkosh, will take part in contest.

FORENSIC