

Basketball Game, Screen ers Dominate Air Tonight

RICHARD BARTHELMESS

Richard Crooks, Richard Barthelmess, George Arliss, and the Wisconsin-Michigan game broadcast rate "firts" tonight on the airlines. Musical shows are in the majority of the aces. The aces classified:

◇ ◇ ◇

Sports

8 p. m.—Wisconsin vs. Michigan (WIBA).

◇ ◇ ◇

Speeches

6:45 p. m. — Sen. Carl Hayden (WENR): will be interviewed about state motor laws.

◇ ◇ ◇

Dramatics

7:30 p. m.—Grand Hotel (WLS): (WIBA): sings works of Friml, Tours, Nevin and Westendorf on the concert hour.

8 p. m. — Artur Rubenstein presents "The Other Land" with Jim Ameche.

8 p. m.—George Arliss (WBBM): plays "Disraeli" with his wife in the Radio Theater.

9:30 p. m.—Drama of the Barkers (WMAQ): notorious gang of the west.

◇ ◇ ◇

Musical

7:30 p. m. — Richard Crooks (WLS): plays piano solos with the Philadelphia symphony.

8:30 p. m. — Phil Spitalny (WMAQ): and his all-girl orchestra will be heard from Cleveland.

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m.—Burns and Allen (WIBA): It's the nuts.

8 p. m. Fibber McGee (WMAQ): is still at it. New orchestra tonight. Weem is on tour.

9:30 p. m.—Richard Barthelmess (WMAQ): heads the "For Men Only" show. Assistance is given by Hannah Williams, Jack Dempsey's wife.

◇ ◇ ◇

Tuesdaytime

9:30 a. m. — Rev. L. B. Mosely (WIBA): guest speaker on dally Church of the Air.

11:30 a. m. — Farm and Home Hour (WIBA): speakers from the capital.

12:15 p. m.—Concert (WCFL): by Rochester Civic orchestra for children.

2 p. m.—Marine Band (WCFL): in regular concert program.

11:00 — Hollywood Hotel WBBM