

Broadcasts

onstration; ddy to Sing

A graphic demonstration of U. S. Army facilities, including pick-ups from an army stratosphere plane attempting to break an altitude record, from the army's new "flying fortress," from West Point, and from two army bases, will be broadcast during the Magic Key program at 1 p. m. today over NBC-WIBA-WENR.

Arranged as a tribute to Army day, the army portion of the hour broadcast will be under the personal supervision of Gen. Malin Craig, chief of staff of the United States army.

Lotte Lehmann, Metropolitan Opera soprano, will be soloist with the Magic Key orchestra, conducted by Frank Black, during the first half of the program.
