

Lum and Abner," sketches his cons Goff who takes that role in their the Columbia network on Monday, model.

The first of a series of talks
by Gov. La Follette, Olympe Bradna's high school graduation, and the start of a series featuring Hal Kemp's orchestra will headline the radio bills tonight. The aces, classified:

Dramatic

6:45 p. m.—Famous Fortunes
(WGN): George Eastman.

Sports

7 p. m.—Baseball (WIND) recreation of Cubs-Cincinnati game.

Variety

7:30 p. m.—Al Jolson (WBBM)
and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

8 p. m.—Al Pearce Gang
(WBBM): with Barry McKinley, Modernaires.

8:30 p. m. — Fibber McGee
(WIBA, WMAQ): goes on a diet

. . . Benny Goodman (WBBM):
repeats "Don't Be That Way." . . .

Jamboree (WENR): at new time;
Estelle Taylor gueststars.

9 p. m. — Time to Shine
(WBBM): new series with Hal
Kemp's orchestra, Judy Starr, Bob Allen.

Discussion

6 p. m.—Gov. La Follette
(WIBA, WHA): "State Affairs."

Miscellaneous

6:15 p. m. — Screenscoops
(WBBM): George McCall presents
Olympe Bradna's unique high school graduation.

Wednesdaytime

11:30 a. m.—Farm and Home
Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): Michigan
State college actors, band, glee club.

1 p. m.—Your Health (WMAQ):
"Who Chooses Your Doctor?" . . .

BBC Symphony (WGN): "Benvenuto Cellini" overture, Berlioz;
"Symphony No. 40," Mozart; "Till Eulenspiegel," Strauss.

4:45 p. m.—Anderson Glee Club
(WENR): Indiana's championship high school group.