

Programs

e, Business n. La Follette on Air

Two leaders in American commerce, Winthrop Aldrich, chairman of the board of the Chase National bank, and Thomas Watson, long a prominent figure in international trade, will be heard over NBC-WENR at 8 tonight, from the International Chamber of Commerce dinner at Washington, D. C.

Watson is an authority on the international exchange of goods. He is chairman of the foreign trade committee of Secy. Roper's business advisory council of the U. S. department of commerce, and a member of the American Manufacturers' Export assn., the Foreign Policy assn., the Council on Foreign Relations, and the National Economic league.

Aldrich, a member of the American Committee of the International Chamber of Commerce, is a director of many large American corporations.

Other aces tonight, classified:

Dramatic

6 p. m. — Public Hero No. 1 (WMAQ): breakup of Iowa bandit gang.

7 p. m. — Radio Theater (WBBM): Gary Cooper, Walter Connolly, Fay Wray in "The Prisoner of Shark Island."

◇ ◇ ◇

Discussion

7:30 p. m.—Vocational Education Week (WIBA): Director A. R. Graham of Madison Vocational school.

8:30 p. m. — National Radio Forum (WMT): Sen. La Follette on third party movement.

◇ ◇ ◇

Musical

6:30 p. m. — Richard Crooks (WIBA, WMAQ): "Beloved, It Is Morn," "Moonbeams," aria from "The Pearl Fisher."

7:30 p. m.—Lincoln Cathedral Choir (WMAQ): University of Nebraska singers in religious songs.

8 p. m. — Contented Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "The Sheik," "Rose of the Ria Grande," "I Wonder What's Become of Sally," other hits of 1920-1930.

8:30 p. m.—Pageant of Melody (WGN): Attilio Baggiore, Kathryn Wittwer, Mark Love in streamlined "Martha."

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

8:30 p. m.—Burns and Allen (WIBA, WENR): Gracie tells story of Frank Parker's life.

◇ ◇ ◇

Miscellaneous

7 p. m.—Pulitzer Prize Awards (WMAQ): announced by Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia.

◇ ◇ ◇

Tuesdaytime

1 p. m.—King George VI (WGN): opens Scottish Empire exhibition.